9.1 Wages & Classifications

Appendix A: attached and made a part of this Agreement is the wage schedule for the classifications currently covered by the terms of this Agreement, which shall be effective on the dates indicated therein and under the provisions contained therein.

Effective January 1, 2016, any employee who is not currently at the correct step of the wage scale based on their verifiable years of experience will have their wages adjusted to correct their placement in the following fashion:

- The correction will be made in a 2 step process – the first adjustment January 1, 2016 and the second and final adjustment January 1, 2017.

- January 1, 2016, adjustment will be one half the dollar amount the difference between the workers current step and the workers proper step.

- January 1, 2017, the salary adjustment will be the balance of the dollar amount owned to bring the member to the proper step based on experience.

- All adjustments in 2016 and 2017 will equate to a minimum of 3%.
For example, if an employee has 8 years of verifiable experience but is currently at step 6, the Employer will calculate the wage difference between step 6 and step 8 and in 2016 the employee will be paid ½ of that amount or be given a 3%, whichever is more. In 2017 the employee will be moved to step 9, in order to keep the employee’s salary in line with their experience. The employee’s salary will be adjusted to the step 9 rate or increased 3 percent, whichever is more.

Wage adjustments for all members will be a minimum of 3% in 2016 and 2017.

On January 1, 2018 all members employed as of December 31, 2017 who are making less than $15 per hour are guaranteed a rate increase to no less than fifteen dollars ($15.00/hr) per hour.

Weingarten Rights

Rule 1: The employee must make a clear request for union representation before or during the interview. The employee cannot be punished for making this request.

Rule 2: After the employee makes the request, the employer must choose from among three options. The employer must: grant the request and delay questioning until the union representative arrives and has a chance to consult privately with the employee; deny the request and end the interview immediately; or give the employee a choice of having the interview without representation or ending the interview.

Rule 3: If the employer denies the request for union representation, and continues to ask questions, it commits an unfair labor practice and the employee has a right to refuse to answer. The employer may not discipline the employee for such a refusal.

WEINGARTEN Statement

(If called to a meeting with management, read the following or present this statement to management when the meeting begins.)

If this discussion could in any way lead to my being disciplined or terminated, or affect my personal working conditions, I respectfully request that my union representative, officer, or steward be present at this meeting. Until my representative arrives, I choose not to participate in this discussion.
