ARTICLE 1: RECOGNITION

Amicable Healthcare, Chesterfield Health Services, Concerned citizens, and Korean Women's Association (hereafter collectively referred to as the "Employers" or singularly as "Employer", "each Employer," or "an Employer") recognize SEIU 775 (the "Union") as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all employees who are employed by the Employers throughout the State of Washington in the position of home care worker, who perform home care and personal services, or work in any position related to delivery of such in---home services, including but not limited to: home care workers, home care aide, caregivers, personal care assistants, Certified Nursing Assistants (CNA or NAC), Nurse Aide Registered (NAR), Licensed Practical Nurses (LPN or LVN), Registered Nurses (RN), and any other similar job title or classification; excluding all employees not employed in the in---home services or programs delivered by the Employers, managers, confidential employees, office clerical employees, translators, professional employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the National Labor Relations Act.

ARTICLE 2: UNION MEMBERSHIP AND UNION SECURITY

Section 1: Union Dues

All bargaining unit employees shall, as a condition of employment, become and remain members of the Union tendering periodic dues and fees as determined by the Union. Each new employee shall be required to become and remain a member of the Union no later than the thirtieth (30th) day of employment. Per the terms of Section 2.3 of this Article, any employee who fails to satisfy this obligation shall be discharged by each Employer, and each Employer shall provide written notice to the Union of such discharge within thirty (30) days.

Section 2: Religious Exemption

It is the intent of this Agreement that the provisions of this Article safeguard the right of employees to remain non---members based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member. Any employee who claims a right of non---association based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member shall provide written notice of that claim to the Union, and shall arrange with the Union to make alternative payments in lieu of the payments required for Union membership to a nonreligious charitable organization (a 501 (c) (3) organization as defined by statute) of the employee's choice. Such employees shall pay an amount of money equal to the periodic dues and fees uniformly required under Section 1 of this Article. Failure to satisfy this alternative payment shall result in discharge from employment, pursuant to Section 2.1 of this Article. Each Employer shall not be financially liable for any failure of the affected employee or the Union to remit payments to the nonreligious charity.

Section 3: Discharge for Failure to Meet Obligations

The Union may demand the discharge of any bargaining unit employee who is delinquent in payments required in this Article or refuses to become and remain a member of the Union. The Union shall communicate delinquency to the affected employee and to the Employer within thirty (30) days of delinquency.

The notice to the delinquent employee shall include a) the fact that the Union has no record of the employee's membership or religious exemption and b) the action required by the employee in order to satisfy requirements of this Agreement. This notice may include: the amount needed to pay delinquent dues in full, a membership form, and/or any other action needed on the part of the employee to satisfy obligations of this Agreement. The Union shall, at the same time, notify the Employer of the name and reason for delinquency of any employee.

Should the employee fail to satisfy obligations of this Agreement, within fifteen (15) days from the date of the original notice of delinquency, the Union may demand in writing that the applicable Employer discharge the employee. Following receipt of such demand, the Employer shall discharge the employee within seven (7) calendar days of the date of the Union's demand.

Section 4: Political Accountability Fund (COPE)

Each Employer shall deduct the sum specified from the pay of each member of the Union who voluntarily executes a Political Accountability Fund (COPE) wage assignment authorization form. When filed with each Employer, the authorization form will be honored in accordance with its terms. The authorization form will remain in effect until or unless revoked in writing by the employee. The amount deducted and a roster of all employees using payroll deduction for Political Accountability Fund (COPE) contributions will be promptly transmitted to the Union by separate check payable to the Union and identified as COPE deductions, at the same time as the monthly remittance of dues. Upon issuance and transmission of a check to the Union, each Employer's responsibility will cease with respect to such deductions. The Union and each employee authorizing the assignment of wages for the payment of Political Accountability Fund (COPE) contributions hereby undertake to indemnify and hold each Employer harmless from all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that may arise against each Employer for, or on account of, any deduction made from wages of an employee.

Section 5: Paycheck Deductions

Each Employer agrees to deduct from each bargaining unit employee's pay all authorized dues, fees, and assessments as determined or required by the Union. Each Employer shall make such deductions from the employee's paycheck following receipt of written authorization, and periodically thereafter as specified on the written authorization, so long as such authorization is in effect, and shall remit the same to the local Union within fifteen (15) days after the end of each pay period. The Union will furnish all the membership forms necessary to be used for this written authorization and will notify each Employer in writing of dues, fees, or assessments to be assessed within five (5) days of execution of this Agreement, and thirty (30) days before the effective date of any change. Each Employer reserves the right to ensure that the authorization of payroll deductions complies with applicable Federal and State laws regarding deductions from wages. Each Employer may require an additional authorization form as per its policies and procedures, to confirm the specific authorization for continued paycheck deduction. The Union will hold harmless each Employer against any claim or obligation which may be made by any employee by reason of the deduction of Union membership fees, including the cost of defending against such claim or obligation.

Section 6: Bargaining Unit Information

Employees covered by this Agreement are required to maintain up-to-date personal phone number(s), and home address on file with each Employer. Each Employer shall provide a roster of all bargaining unit employees to the Union on a monthly basis. The roster shall include each employee's name, social security number, gender, home address, mailing address, home phone number, alternative phone number (if any), email address (if any), office or unit where the employee is assigned, job classification(s), FTE status, shift, rate(s) of pay, gross pay, hours worked in the month (or month---to---date in the event of twice---monthly pay), total hours accrued as an employee of each Employer or hours credited towards a wage scale step year---to---date, amount and rate of any special differential pay, date of hire, and date of termination. Each Employer shall facilitate reconciliation of these employment records with the Union, including clarifying whether workers are inactive because of paid or unpaid leave or other reason. All information required to be transmitted under this Agreement shall be transmitted in a common electronic format agreed upon by each Employer and the Union.

Section 7: Membership Forms

Each Employer agrees to distribute membership forms for the Union with the basic employment paperwork required by each Employer. All Union membership forms completed by an employee and returned to the Employer will be forwarded to the Union within fifteen (15) days of the Employers receipt of the form.

ARTICLE 3: UNION RIGHTS

Section 1: Advocates

For purposes of representation and mutual administration of the contract, the Union will designate advocates from among its members employed by the Employers. The advocate position is the worker representative position responsible for handling grievances and disciplinary issues with the Employers. The Union will notify each Employer when an advocate has been designated.

Section 2: Advocate Recognition

3.2.1 Korean Women's Association

The Employer agrees to compensate designated advocates at their regular rate of pay for their involvement in contract enforcement. These activities are defined as time spent in grievance investigation or meetings, and in services as mutually agreed upon by the Union and each Employer. Advocates shall have the obligation to inform their supervisors when they will be utilizing advocate time, and shall follow all usual scheduling procedures to ensure client care coverage.

Section 3: Bulletin Boards

Each Employer will provide a bulletin board and place the board in an area easily accessible to employees in each of the Employer's branch offices for union postings.

Section 4: New Employee Orientations, In-Service Trainings, and Continuing Education

3.4.1 Korean Women's Association

The Union shall have the right to include information in each Employer's new employee orientation materials. The Union will provide adequate copies of all documents it wants to be so included. New caregivers will be scheduled to attend one thirty (30) minute "Union Time" presentation during the required basic training of homecare workers. Such time will be paid time. Continuing caregivers will be scheduled to attend one fifteen (15) minute "Union Time" presentation each calendar year that is connected with a Continuing Education Class. Such time will be paid time. An employee must present satisfactory proof of attendance to be paid for any "Union Time" presentation.

Section 5: Access to Each Employer's Offices

Each Employer agrees to admit to its offices the authorized worker representative of the Union for the purposes of adjusting grievances and conducting other Union business.

Section 6: Access to Each Employer's Files

The employee or his/her worker representative shall have the right to examine the employee's personnel file. If the employee is not present, the employee shall provide written authorization to enable the worker representative to examine the file in the absence of the employee. Only appropriate information shall be maintained in an employee's personnel file. Employees may request that a document be removed from their personnel file. Each Employer retains full discretion in determining whether the request is granted. Disputes regarding documents placed in the employee's permanent personnel file are subject to the Grievance Procedure as stated in Article 9.

The Union may, during normal business hours, examine time sheets, work production or other records that pertain to an employee's compensation and/or fringe benefits, in case of a dispute as to contributions and/ or pay. The Union shall not exercise this right so as to be disruptive of the Employer's business.

Section 7: Meeting Rooms

The Union may use meeting rooms of the Employer in its offices for meetings of the unit, provided sufficient advance request for meeting facilities is made to the designated administrator in the and space is available

ARTICLE 4: NO DISCRIMINATION

The Employers agree that qualified applicants for employment will be considered without regard to race, ethnicity, color, physical and/or mental disability, marital status, national or tribal origin, ancestry, gender, sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, age, religion, creed, citizenship status, veteran status, lawful political beliefs or actions, union membership or activities, or other characteristics or considerations made unlawful by federal, state, or local law or by government agency regulations. The Employers further agree that they shall not discriminate in terms or conditions of employment on the basis of the aforementioned characteristics (except for bona fide occupational qualifications or client preference). The Employers and the Union also commit to support equal employment opportunity and affirmative recruitment to ensure a diverse workforce. All employees share the responsibility of maintaining a work environment that is supportive of equal employment opportunity. Employees shall be treated fairly and with dignity and respect.

ARTICLE 5: CLIENT RIGHTS

The Employers and the Union are committed to quality care of clients. It is the right of clients, in the privacy of their home, to choose the employee with whom they feel the most comfortable. The Employers support client rights. If a client wishes to change employees, for any reason, the Employers will respect the right of the client to do so. If a client chooses to change employees, the employee who is being unscheduled shall be eligible for another client(s) or equivalent hours as available. The Employers will make a good faith effort to provide support for a successful employee/client relationship(s). At the discretion of the parties, the Employers and the Union may explore through the Labor Management Committee methods of coaching, counseling or mediation to assist in the resolution of client/worker conflicts to help ensure consistent service delivery with minimal worker reassignment.

ARTICLE 6: PROBATION

Section 1: Korean Women's Association

The first 750 hours worked during any employment or re---employment shall be the probationary period for all new or returning employees provided that the probationary period shall not exceed seven (7) months unless extended by the employer. The employer and the Union may agree to extend the probation period for an employee who has worked substantially less than 750 hours in the initial seven months or for other sufficient reason. Any extension of the probation period shall be in writing and shall be to a date certain. During this period the Employer shall provide specific orientation to the job performance expectations, to the agency and to the agency's services and programs, and to the people/clients served by the agency. Supervisors shall monitor performance during this time and will provide appropriate feedback to the employee, to help the employee successfully complete the probationary period. If requirements of the job are not being met, the Employer shall seek to counsel the employee to correct the defined deficiencies. If satisfactory improvement does not result, the probationary employee may be disciplined or terminated in the sole discretion of the Employer without further notice or recourse to the grievance procedure. The discipline or discharge of an employee who is in probationary status shall not be in violation of this Agreement. Probationary employees are covered by the terms and conditions of this Agreement except as specifically noted and retain the same legal rights as other employees under the National Labor Relations Act and applicable local, State and Federal laws. Employees completing the probationary period shall be credited with seniority retroactive to date of hire. Seniority shall be based on hours in accordance with the wage schedules set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7: SENIORITY

Seniority shall be defined as the number of hours worked within the bargaining unit from the employee's date of hire. Continuous service shall be defined as no break in service for longer than one month with the exception of a Union---related leave of absence, military duty, leave under the Family Medical Leave Act, or any other extended leave approved by an Employer. Seniority shall be used to determine wage rates and entitlement to or accrual of other benefits as described in this agreement. Seniority shall also be a factor in determining work assignments, layoffs and recalls.

ARTICLE 8: DISCIPLINE AND JUST CAUSE

Section 1: Just Cause and Right to Representation

a) Just Cause and Progressive Discipline

The Employers shall have the right to discipline employees and/or to discharge non-probationary employees for just cause only. Communications between supervisors and employees about disciplinary matters shall be respectful and discipline shall be, in general, directed at correcting performance problems. In general, progressive discipline shall be used, with the general progression as follows: verbal warning, written reprimand or warning, unpaid or paid suspension, and termination/discharge (firing).

b) Serious Misconduct

In the case of serious misconduct, or for disqualifying crimes as defined in statutes applied to the licensed provision of home care services, each Employer may in its sole discretion, for reasonable cause, bypass any one or all of the steps of progressive discipline.

In the case of any form of discipline less than termination, the employee's disciplinary action shall include a description of the conduct that is the basis for the disciplinary action(s). Each Employer will strive to identify specific corrective action(s) that the employee is expected to take to improve his/her performance.

c) Fact-finding

Prior to issuing any form of disciplinary action to an employee, an Employer shall attempt to meet with the employee to investigate and gather facts. The Employer shall advise the employee of the purpose of the investigatory meeting and that the meeting could lead to disciplinary action, and shall advise the employee of his/her right to request the presence of an advocate or Union representative in the meeting. If an employee requests the presence of an advocate or Union representative, the Employer will make a reasonable attempt to schedule a meeting when the participating advocate or Union representative and employee are available to meet. The unavailability of an advocate or Union staff representative for a meeting date shall not unreasonably delay or impede the Employer's investigation or decision to take disciplinary action.

Section 2: Notification of Formal Disciplinary Action / Written Justification for Discipline for Cause

In the case of any written reprimand (written warning), suspension, economic sanction, or termination/discharge for cause, an Employer shall give a copy of the disciplinary action to the employee, stating the reasons for the discipline. The document shall include a line for the signature of the employee and the immediate supervisor or manager responsible for the decision to issue discipline, including the following notice: "Signing this document indicates that you have received a copy but does not indicate that you agree or disagree with its contents. You may have the right to contest this action through filing a grievance, if you believe this action violates the Union contract. You may contact your Union advocate or the SEIU 775 office at 1-866-371-3200."

The lack of the employee's signature on the notice shall not be grounds for nullifying or challenging the notice or any ensuing disciplinary action where reasonable evidence shows that the applicable Employer attempted to inform the employee of the investigation, pending or actual discipline.

Section 3: Suspension or Discharge

Within seven (7) calendar days after any suspension or discharge for cause, an Employer shall notify the Union in writing (by fax or email) of the suspension or discharge and the reason for this action and shall attach a copy of the disciplinary notice signed by the employee or provided to the employee. Employees who are suspended may use any accrued, paid leave during their period of suspension.

Section 4: Investigation of Just Cause by Union

An advocate or Union representative shall have the right to interview employees and management personnel and gather information concerning disciplinary matters. Such interviews shall not interfere in any way with an Employer's business activity. Should a client complaint be involved, the applicable Employer will attempt to provide a copy of the clients' written complaint, if any, with all identifiers removed, so long as the removal of identifiers adequately protects the confidentiality rights of the client and the provision of the complaint does not violate federal, state, local laws or regulations.

Section 5: Employer Rules

The Employer may establish reasonable work rules necessary to regulate employees' conduct at work. Work rules shall be reviewed with new employees, conspicuously posted and made available to all employees. Each Employer may require new employees to sign a form provided by that Employer to confirm their understanding of the work rules. Each Employer will advise the Union of any proposed changes to the work rules thirty (30) days in advance. If the rule is a mandatory subject of bargaining, the Union reserves the right to demand to bargain.

Section 6: Personnel Files

8.6.1 Korean Women's Association

Any information about the employee may be included in the personnel file, including without limitation information regarding disciplinary action, such as client complaints, warnings, placements on probation status, and formal evaluation reports prepared by an Employer shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and a copy shall be made available to the employee upon the employee's written request. The Employer shall allow the employee and/or his/her representative (if the employee so authorizes in writing) to examine, in the presence of an authorized Employer representative, the employee's permanent personnel file maintained in the Employer's office, at a mutually agreeable time and date; files must be made available within two (5) business days of receipt of a written request. Employees who have a reasonable dispute with information in their personnel file may submit written comments no more than two (2) pages in length, replying to any material in their file, which comments shall also be maintained in their personnel file. Employees may not submit additional written comments regarding disputes which have been resolved through the grievance process. Should the employee maintain a good record for one (1) year, the employee may request the removal of identified negative materials from his/her personnel files, unless otherwise required to be retained by state law or regulation. Reasonable requests for removal of identified negative materials will be considered and will not be unreasonably denied.

Section 7: APS or Regulatory Investigations

Should Adult Protective Services or another regulatory agency (such as Children's Administration or the Division of Developmental Disabilities) initiate an investigation of an employee that requires suspension or removal of that employee from any client, but does not require suspension or removal from all home care work, the applicable Employer will attempt to assign the employee other suitable home care work until the investigation is complete if permitted by state law or regulation

If, following the conclusion of an APS or other regulatory investigation, it is determined by the applicable Employer, or APS or other regulatory agency that the employee is to be disciplined, up to and including termination, the notification provisions of Section 8.2 of this Article will apply.

If the investigation indicates that the disciplinary action is unnecessary, the applicable Employer will make reasonable efforts to reinstate the employee to the same hours/position with the original client. If the client should decline to be served by the employee, the applicable Employer will make reasonable efforts to assign suitable and available client hours, until s/he is employed at the same number of hours as before the investigation.

ARTICLE 9: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1: Definition

A grievance is hereby defined as a claim against, or dispute with, an Employer by an employee or the Union involving an alleged violation by an Employer of the terms of this Agreement and/or the employee handbook or past practices and policies of an Employer which initiate on the execution date of this Agreement. The Union and the Employers are mutually committed to resolving disputes at the lowest level possible, in an expedient manner. Grievance response timelines may be extended by mutual written agreement. Grievances concerning discharge, discrimination as defined this Agreement or grievances filed by the Union shall be filed initially at Step Two.

9.1.1 Korean Women's Association

A grievance is also defined as a claim by the Korean Women's Association involving an alleged violation of the terms of this Agreement or as to the interpretation of a provision or provisions of this agreement.

Section 2: Time Limits, Meetings, and Notifications

9.2.1 Korean Women's Association

The purpose of time limits within the grievance procedure is to ensure the swift resolution of disputes. Time limits may be extended or waived at any step of the grievance procedure by mutual written agreement of the Parties. The party awaiting a response at any step may advance the grievance to the next step once the time limits have expired. The Union may withdraw a grievance at any step in the grievance procedure. The Parties agree the grievance may be resolved at any stage of the grievance process provided that all appeals are timely.

The parties may waive meetings or conduct meetings by phone by mutual agreement. Electronic mail (email) shall be valid notification under this article.

Section 3: Grievance Steps

9.3.1 Korean Women's Association

A) Union/Member filed Grievances shall be handled in the following manner:

Step One: The grievant, advocate and/or Union staff representative shall present a grievance orally to the grievant's immediate supervisor within fifteen (15)) calendar days from the date of the occurrence of the facts or from the date the alleged violation first became known, whichever is later. The supervisor shall respond in writing to the grievance within ten (10) calendar days of the presentation to agree to resolve the grievance or to deny the grievance. The supervisor's response shall be addressed to both the grievant and the Union. Should the supervisor fail to respond within this time frame, the Union shall have the right to forward the grievance to the next step.

Step Two: If no resolution or settlement is reached between the grievant and the supervisor, the grievant or the Union may file a written appeal of the supervisor's decision rendered in Step One to the appropriate Program Director or his/her designated representative. The grievant or Union shall file this written grievance within fifteen (15) calendar days after his/her receipt of the supervisor's decision from Step One. A meeting with the appropriate Program Director or his/her representative, the grievant and the advocate or Union staff representative shall be held not later than fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the written grievance. The appropriate Program Director's response shall be addressed to the grievant and the Union. The appropriate Program Director's response shall be final and binding on the employee, the Union, and the Employers unless it is timely appealed to arbitration by the Union in accordance with this Article.

Grievances concerning discharge or discrimination, or grievances filed by the Union shall be filed initially at Step Two. Group grievances claiming the same alleged conduct involving employees who work under more than one supervisor may be filed initially at Step Two. Multiple individual grievances alleging the same violation that are filed during the same time frame may be combined into a group grievance and commenced at Step Two.

B) KOREAN WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION filed grievances

KOREAN WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION will file an Employer grievance with the designated Union staff representative. The Union will respond in writing to the grievance within ten (10) calendar days of the presentation. If the grievance is not resolved at this stage, KOREAN WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION may submit the grievance to mediation through the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or another mediator acceptable to the parties. The mediation shall be completed within forty--five (45) days of the Union's response. If the grievance is not resolved at mediation, then KOREAN WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION shall have the right, within the next fifteen (15) calendar days, to advise the designated Union representative that KOREAN WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION is forwarding the grievance to a neutral arbitrator for final and binding resolution in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.6.

Section 4: Written Grievance

The written grievance must contain the following information: (a) the exact nature of the grievance; (b) the act or acts alleged to be violations of the Agreement, an Employer policy or an Employer's past practice that is not specifically addressed in this Agreement; (c) when the alleged act(s) occurred; (d) the identity of the grievant(s); (e) the specific Article or provision of this Agreement or the past practice alleged to have been violated; (f) the remedy proposed to attempt to resolve the grievance. The written grievance need not be on the Union's grievance form, as long as it contains the information above. The written grievance must be signed by the grievant or authorized Union representative.

Section 5: Request for Arbitration

Weingarten Rights

Rule 1: The employee must make a clear request for union representation before or during the interview. The employee cannot be punished for making this request.

Rule 2: After the employee makes the request, the employer must choose from among three options. The employer must: grant the request and delay questioning until the union representative arrives and has a chance to consult privately with the employee; deny the request and end the interview immediately; or give the employee a choice of having the interview without representation or ending the interview.

Rule 3: If the employer denies the request for union representation, and continues to ask questions, it commits an unfair labor practice and the employee has a right to refuse to answer. The employer may not discipline the employee for such a refusal.

WEINGARTEN Statement

If this discussion could in any way lead to my being disciplined or terminated, or affect my personal working conditions, I respectfully request that my union representative, officer, or steward be present at this meeting.
