APPENDIX A – WAGE SCALES (BASE RATES)..... 52

ARTICLE 1: RECOGNITION

Chesterfield Health Services (hereafter referred to as the “Employer or “an Employer”) recognize SEIU 775 (the “Union”) as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all employees who are employed by the Employer throughout the State of Washington in the position of home care worker, who perform home care and personal services, or work in any position related to delivery of such in-home services, including but not limited to: home care workers, home care aide, caregivers, personal care assistants, Certified Nursing Assistants (CAN or NAC), Nurse Aide Registered (NAR), Licensed Practical Nurses (LPN or LVN), Registered Nurses (RN), and any other similar job title or classification; excluding all employees not employed in the in-home services or programs delivered by the Employer, managers, confidential employees, office clerical employees, translators, professional employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the National Labor Relations Act.

ARTICLE 2: UNION MEMBERSHIP AND UNION SECURITY

SECTION 2.1: UNION MEMBERSHIP DUES

No later than thirty (30) days following the effective date of this Agreement, all present employees must, as a condition of continued employment, be or become members of the Union; all employees hired after the effective date of this Agreement shall be or become and remain members of the Union no later than thirty (30) days following the first day of their Employment in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended and in accordance with applicable law. Failure of any employee to comply with the provisions of this subsection shall, upon request of the Union, result in termination of such employee, provided that the Union has given the employee fourteen (14) days’ notice, that the employee’s obligation to make payment has not been met and that the delinquency renders the employee liable to termination under this section and that the termination request complies with applicable law. The Employer shall provide written notice to the Union of such discharge within thirty (30) days. The Employer shall not be obligated to dismiss an employee for non-membership in the Union: (a) If the employer has reasonable grounds for believing that such membership was not available on the same terms and conditions generally applicable to other members; or (b) If the employer has reasonable grounds for believing that such membership was denied or terminated for reasons other than the failure of the employee to tender the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership; or (c) the employer has reasonable grounds to believe the termination request does not comply with applicable law.

SECTION 2.2: RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION

It is the intent of this Agreement that the provisions of this Article safeguard the right of employees to remain non-members based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member. Any employee who claims a right of non-association based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member shall provide written notice of that claim to the Union and shall arrange with the Union to make alternative payments in lieu of the payments required for Union membership to a nonreligious charitable organization (a 501 (c) (3) organization as defined by statute) of the employee's choice. Such employees shall pay an amount of money equal to the periodic dues and fees uniformly required under Section 1 of this Article. Failure to satisfy this alternative payment shall result in discharge from employment, pursuant to Section 2.1 of this Article. The Employer shall not be financially liable for any failure of the affected employee or the Union to remit payments to the nonreligious charity.

SECTION 2.3: DUES DEDUCTION

The Employer agrees to deduct from each bargaining unit employee's pay all authorized dues, fees, and assessments as determined or required by the Union. The Employer shall make such deductions from the employee's paycheck following receipt of written authorization, and periodically thereafter as specified on the written authorization, so long as such authorization is in effect, and shall remit the same to the local Union within five (5) days after the end of each pay period. The Union will furnish all the membership forms necessary to be used for this written authorization and will notify the Employer in writing of dues, fees, or assessments to be assessed within five (5) days of execution of this Agreement, and thirty (30) days before the effective date of any change. The Union reserves the right to enforce the terms and conditions of each employee's signed membership card with regard to when authorizations for deductions may be revoked. The Employer shall honor the terms and conditions of each employee's signed membership card.

SECTION 2.4: POLITICAL ACCOUNTABILITY FUND (COPE)

The Employer shall deduct the sum specified from the pay of each member of the Union who voluntarily executes a Political Accountability Fund (COPE) wage assignment authorization form. When filed with the Employer, the authorization form will be honored in accordance with its terms. The authorization form will remain in effect until or unless revoked in writing by the employee. The amount deducted and a roster of all employees using payroll deduction for Political Accountability Fund (COPE) contributions will be promptly transmitted to the Union by separate check payable to the Union and identified as COPE deductions, at the same time as the monthly remittance of dues. Upon issuance and transmission of a check to the Union, the Employer's responsibility will cease with respect to such deductions. The Union and each employee authorizing the assignment of wages for the payment of Political Accountability Fund (COPE) contributions hereby undertake to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that may arise against the Employer for, or on account of, any deduction made from wages of an employee.

SECTION 2.5: VOLUNTARY DEDUCTIONS

Upon receipt of a payroll authorization form, the Employer shall deduct and transmit voluntary contributions from each employee to the Union. The Employer shall deduct the sum specified from the pay of each employee and the authorization will be honored in accordance with its terms. The authorization will remain in effect until or unless revoked in writing by the employee or the Union. The amount deducted and a roster of all employees using payroll deduction for voluntary deductions will be promptly transmitted to the Union by separate check payable to the Union and identified as Voluntary Deduction, at the same time as the monthly remittance of dues.

SECTION 2.6: ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE

The parties acknowledge and agree that, consistent with the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (Pub. L. 106–229, 114 Stat. 464, enacted June 30, 2000, 15 U.S.C. ch. 96) the terms “authorize,” “authorized”, “authorization form” and “written authorization,” as used in this Agreement, include without limitation authorizations created and maintained by use of electronic records and electronic signatures consistent with state and federal law. The Union understands the Employer may require an additional authorization form as per its policies and procedures, to confirm the specific authorization for continued paycheck deductions. In addition to electronic scanned copies of paper authorizations from the Union, the Employer shall accept copies of electronic signatures and digital files containing voice authorizations and give full force and effect to such authorizations as “written authorization” for purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 2.7: BARGAINING UNIT INFORMATION AND REPORTING

Employees covered by this Agreement are required to maintain up-to-date personal phone number(s), and home address on file with the Employer. The Employer shall provide a roster of all bargaining unit employees to the Union on a monthly basis, in a secure manner. This information shall be transmitted securely in a mutually agreeable format. The roster shall include each employee’s, first name, last name, social security number, gender, preferred language (the employer will start providing information on preferred language by June or will inform the Union if it takes longer), address type (mailing or physical) address 1, address 2, city, state, zip code, phone number, cell phone number (all phone numbers shall conform to the (xxx) xxx-xxxx format), email address, office or unit where the employee is assigned, job classification(s), wage, cumulative lifetime hours worked used for wage step determination (CCH balance- rolling total should include the hours worked on each row), live-in provider (y/n), pay period start date, pay period end date, pay period hours, gross pay amount and rate of any special differential pay, overtime hours, PTO balance, PTO hours paid, mileage amount paid, date of hire or most recent rehire (if applicable), date of birth, amount paid in dues, dues percentage, amount paid in COPE (if applicable), amount paid in any other voluntary deductions(s) (if applicable), date of termination, last or most recent rehire date. All information provided by the Employer under this section shall be transmitted to the Union in a common, commercially available electronic format specified by the Union. The sum of the individual Union dues amounts in the Roster shall exactly match the amount of the dues payment(s) remitted to the Union. The sum of the voluntary deductions in the Roster shall exactly match the amount of the voluntary deduction payment(s) remitted to the Union. The Employer shall facilitate reconciliation of these employment records with the Union, including clarifying whether workers are inactive because of paid or unpaid leave or other reason.

If the Dues Report and the Employee Roster are submitted as separate reports, both reports must have a corresponding record, cover the same time period, and must contain the following identical information:

1. Employee number
2. First name
3. Middle name
4. Last name
5. Social Security Number

The Union will conduct periodic audits of data related to membership form reconciliation, financial deductions, and bargaining unit information. The Employer shall complete and/or reconcile the audit within fifteen (15) days of receiving the audit from the Union.

SECTION 2.8: MEMBERSHIP FORMS

The Employer agrees to distribute membership forms for the Union with the basic employment paperwork required by the Employer. All Union membership forms completed by an employee and returned to the Employer will be forwarded to the Union within fifteen (15) days of the Employer receipt of the form.

SECTION 2.9: DATA SECURITY

The Employer and Union acknowledges the importance of keeping employee information confidential. The Union understands the Employer has a policy which requires the approval of the Vice President of Human Resources prior to any release of personnel files and associated records. The employer agrees to notify the Union within ten (10) calendar days if a third party has requested release of any information about the entire bargaining unit, classification or branch. In no case, will the Employer release information prior to notifying the Union.

Should the request include the names, addresses, telephone numbers, wireless telephone numbers, electronic mail addresses, social security numbers, and dates of birth of all employees covered by this Agreement, the Employer agrees that it shall execute a non-disclosure agreement with any third-party before the third party receives this information.

ARTICLE 3: UNION RIGHTS

SECTION 3.1: ADVOCATE

For purposes of representation and mutual administration of the contract, the Union will designate advocates from among its members employed by the Employer. The advocate position is the worker representative position responsible for handling grievances and disciplinary issues with the Employer. The Union will notify the Employer when an advocate has been designated.

SECTION 3.2: ADVOCATE RECOGNITION

The Employer agrees to compensate designated advocates at their regular rate of pay for their involvement in contract enforcement. These activities are defined as time spent in grievance investigation, the labor management committee, Safety, No Harassment and No Discrimination Committee, "Union time" presentations, negotiations or meetings, and in-services as mutually agreed upon by the Union and the Employer. Advocates shall have the obligation to inform their supervisors when they will be utilizing advocate time, and shall follow all usual scheduling procedures to ensure client care coverage.

SECTION 3.3: BULLETIN BOARDS

The Employer will provide a bulletin board and place the board in an area easily accessible to employees in each of the Employer's branch offices for union postings.

The Union will provide a copy of all posted materials to the Human Resources Department at the time of posting. All postings will be signed by a Union worksite leader or Union staff person.

SECTION 3.4: NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATIONS, IN-SERVICE TRAININGS AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

An integral part of each employee's tenure with the Employer is an understanding of this Agreement and the role of the Union in the employment setting. As such, representatives designated by the Union shall be permitted to attend the Employer's new employee orientations during regular working hours. The Employer will provide the Union representative or Union advocate at least forty-eight (48) hours' notice of all new employee orientations if possible so that the Union may make its presentation in person or by phone. New employees and Advocates will be paid during these times. In the event the employer's new employee orientation is to be cancelled, postponed or delayed, the employer shall notify the Union as soon as possible.

In some cases, various circumstances, such as scheduling conflicts, rural locations, emergent client needs, or unanticipated matters require new employee orientations to occur as needed and may be scheduled without notice. In these exceptional circumstances the Employer will, as they occur, provide the Union notice of new employees, which includes the employee's name, mailing address, home and cell phone numbers, and email address (if provided by the employee), in a secured manner.

The Union shall have the right to include information in the Employer's new employee orientation materials. The Union will provide adequate copies of all documents it wants to be so included.

Additionally, new caregivers will be scheduled to attend one-thirty (30) minute "union time" presentation during the required basic training of home care workers, such time shall be paid.

Continuing caregivers will be scheduled to attend one fifteen (15) minute “Union time” presentation each calendar year that is connected with a Continuing Education Class, such time shall be paid. An employee must present satisfactory proof of attendance to be paid for any “Union time” presentation.

SECTION 3.5: ACCESS TO EMPLOYER’S OFFICES

The Employer agrees to admit to its offices the authorized worker representative of the Union for the purposes of adjusting grievances and conducting other Union business.

SECTION 3.6: ACCESS TO EMPLOYEE’S PERSONNEL FILES

The employee or his/her worker representative shall have the right to examine the employee’s personnel file. If the employee is not present, the employee shall provide written authorization to enable the worker representative to examine the file in the absence of the employee. Only appropriate information shall be maintained in an employee’s personnel file. Employees may request that a document be removed from their personnel file. The Employer retains full discretion in determining whether the request is granted. Disputes regarding documents placed in the employee’s permanent personnel file are subject to the Grievance Procedure as stated in Article 9. This section does not apply to information requested by the Union.

The Union may, during normal business hours, examine time sheets, work production or other records that pertain to an employee’s compensation and/or fringe benefits, in case of a dispute as to contributions and/ or pay. The Union shall not exercise this right so as to be disruptive of the Employer’s business, but to fulfill its duty of representation as indicated in the National Labor Relations Act.

SECTION 3.7: MEETING ROOMS

The Union may use meeting rooms of the Employer in its offices for meetings of the unit, provided sufficient advance request for meeting facilities is made to the designated administrator and if the and space is available.

SECTION 3.8: WEBSITES

3.8.1 EMPLOYER WEBSITE

Websites maintained by the Employer that bargaining unit members might reasonably access to seek employment related information shall contain a link to the Union’s website when or if this is possible.

3.8.2 PAYROLL WEBSITE

The Employer shall display a link to the Union website on the opening webpage of the online payroll website when or if this is possible.

SECTION 3.9 UNION LEAVE

Hours worked by an employee who has been employed for at least three (3) years, for purposes of approved Union leave will be credited toward the employee’s cumulative career hours (CCH). Similarly, an employee on an approved Union leave, and who has been employed for at least three (3) years shall continue to accrue seniority at the same rate of their accrual immediately preceding the leave.

ARTICLE 4: EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NO DISCRIMINATION

The parties agree to work jointly to establish, through the application of this agreement, positive and progressive Affirmative Action in order to redress the effects of possible past discrimination, eliminate any possible present discrimination, to prevent further discrimination and to ensure equal opportunity in the application of this Agreement.

The Employer agrees that qualified applicants for employment will be considered without regard to race, ethnicity, color, physical and/or mental disability (except as exempted by a bona fide occupational qualification), marital status, national or tribal origin, ancestry, gender, sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity or perceived gender identity, age, religion, creed, citizenship status, veteran status, active service in the Armed Forces of the United States, lawful political beliefs or actions, union membership or activities, or other characteristics or considerations made unlawful by federal, state, or local law or by government agency regulations.

The Employer further agree that they shall not discriminate in terms or conditions of employment on the basis of the aforementioned characteristics (except for bona fide occupational qualifications or client preference). The Employer and the Union also commit to support equal employment opportunity and affirmative recruitment to ensure a diverse workforce. The Employer and the Union shall develop a way to produce the parties' collective bargaining agreement in multiple languages to ensure inclusion and acknowledgement of employees who wish to read the contract in a different language other than English; this topic can be a subject for discussion at the Labor Management Committee.

All employees share the responsibility of maintaining a work environment that is supportive of equal employment opportunity. Employees shall be treated fairly and with dignity and respect.

4.1 Privacy Rights and Immigrant Safety

The Union is obligated to represent all workers without discrimination based upon national or ethnic origin. The Union is therefore obligated to protect workers against violations of their legal rights occurring in the workplace, including unreasonable search and seizure. The Employer is obligated to comply with all applicable federal, state, and local regulations in addition to operating within all parameters and specific conditions set in their private compliance agreement with federal state and local regulatory officials.

To the extent permitted by law, the Employer shall notify the Union as quickly as possible, if any D.H.S. (Department of Homeland Security) or ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) agent contacts the Employer to enable a Union representative or attorney to take steps to protect the rights of workers. Additionally, to the extent permitted by law, the Employer shall notify the Union immediately upon receiving notice from the D.H.S. or ICE, or when an SSA audit of worker records (for any purpose) is scheduled or proposed and shall provide the Union with any list received from such governmental agencies identifying workers with documentation or social security problems.

To the extent permitted by law, the Employer shall not infringe the privacy rights of workers, without their express consent, by revealing to the D.H.S. or ICE any worker name, address, or other similar information. To the extent permitted by law, the Employer shall notify the affected worker and the Union in the event it furnished such information to the D.H.S. or ICE.

To the extent permitted by law, the Employer may provide paid or unpaid leaves of absences for any worker who requests such leave in advance because of court or agency proceedings relating to immigration matters as outlined in its Employer Policies and consistent with all state and federal leave requirements.

To the extent permitted by law, workers shall not be discharged, disciplined, suffer loss of seniority or any other benefit or be otherwise adversely affected by a lawful change of name or social security number. Workers who have falsified any records concerning their identity and/or social security number will be terminated. Nothing in this section shall restrict the Employer's right to terminate a worker who falsifies other types of records or documents.

ARTICLE 5: CLIENT RIGHTS

The Employer and the Union are committed to quality care of clients. It is the right of clients, in the privacy of their home, to choose the employee with whom they feel the most comfortable. The Employer support client rights. If a client wishes to change employees, for any reason, the Employer will respect the right of the client to do so. If a client chooses to change employees, the employee who is being unscheduled shall be eligible for another client(s) or equivalent hours as available. The Employer will make a good faith effort to provide support for a successful employee/client relationship(s). At the discretion of the parties, the Employer and the Union may explore through the Labor Management Committee methods of coaching, counseling or mediation to assist in the resolution of client/worker conflicts to help ensure consistent service delivery with minimal worker reassignment.

ARTICLE 6: PROBATION

The first six (6) months of employment or re-employment shall be the probationary period for all new and returning employees. During this period, the Employer shall provide specific orientation to the job performance expectations, to the agency and to the agency's services and programs, and to the people/clients served by the agency. Supervisors shall monitor performance during this time and will provide appropriate feedback to the employee, to help the employee successfully complete the probationary period. If requirements of the job are not being met, the Employer shall seek to counsel the employee to correct the defined deficiencies. If satisfactory improvement does not result, the probationary employee may be disciplined or terminated in the sole discretion of the Employer for just cause without further notice or recourse to the grievance procedure. The discipline or discharge of an employee who is in probationary status shall not be in violation of this Agreement. Probationary employees are covered by the terms and conditions of this Agreement except as specifically noted and retain the same legal rights as other employees under the National Labor Relations Act and applicable local, State and Federal laws. Employees completing the probationary period shall be credited with seniority retroactive to date of hire. Seniority shall be based on the date of hire with the Employer.

The pay rate of the employee is determined by the cumulative career hours as a home care worker set forth on the wage scale in this agreement.

ARTICLE 7: SENIORITY

Seniority shall be defined as the employee's date of hire with the Employer. Continuous service shall be defined as no break in service for longer than one month with the exception of a Union-related leave of absence, military duty, leave under the Family Medical Leave Act, or any other extended leave approved by an Employer. Seniority shall also be a factor in determining work assignments, layoffs and recalls. Seniority shall be used to determine entitlement to or accrual of other benefits as described in this agreement. Seniority shall also be a factor in determining work assignments, layoffs and recalls. The pay rate of the employee is determined by the number of verifiable cumulative career hours as a home care worker (per Article 20 – Wages and Premiums).

ARTICLE 8: DISCIPLINE AND JUST CAUSE

SECTION 8.1: JUST CAUSE AND RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION

Just Cause and Progressive Discipline

The Employer shall have the right to discipline employees and/or to discharge non-probationary employees for just cause only. Communications between supervisors and employees about disciplinary matters shall be respectful and discipline shall be, in general, directed at correcting performance problems. In general, progressive discipline shall be used, with the general progression as follows:

- verbal warning
- written reprimand or warning
- suspension
- termination/discharge

The purpose of progressive discipline is intended to be corrective in nature and not intended to be punitive.

Serious Misconduct

In the case of serious misconduct, or for disqualifying crimes as defined in statutes applied to the licensed provision of home care services, the Employer may in its sole discretion, for reasonable cause, bypass any one or all of the steps of progressive discipline.

In the case of any form of discipline less than termination, the employee's disciplinary action shall include a description of the conduct that is the basis for the disciplinary action(s) and the date of the infraction. The Employer will strive to identify specific corrective action(s) that the employee is expected to take to improve his/her performance.

Fact-finding

Prior to issuing any form of disciplinary action to an employee, the Employer shall attempt to meet with the employee to investigate and gather facts, in person or via a written statement by the employee, surrounding the incident. The Employer shall advise the employee of the purpose of the investigatory meeting and that the meeting could lead to disciplinary action, and shall advise the employee of his/her right to request the presence of an advocate or Union representative in the meeting. If an employee requests the presence of an advocate or Union representative, the Employer will make a reasonable attempt to schedule a meeting when the participating advocate or Union representative and employee are available to meet. The unavailability of an advocate or Union staff representative for a meeting date shall not unreasonably delay or impede the Employer's investigation or decision to take disciplinary action. In the event the Employer requests a written statement in lieu of or in addition to an in-person meeting, the Employer shall notify the employee of their right to consult their Union Representative prior to the submission of the statement.

SECTION 8.2: NOTIFICATION OF FORMAL DISCIPLINARY ACTION/Written JUSTIFICATION FOR DISCIPLINE FOR CAUSE

In the case of any written reprimand (written warning), suspension, or termination/discharge for just cause, an Employer shall give a copy of the disciplinary action to the employee, stating the reasons for the discipline. The document shall include a line for the signature of the employee and the immediate supervisor or manager responsible for the decision to issue discipline, including the following notice:

“Signing this document indicates that you have received a copy but does not indicate that you agree or disagree with its contents. You may have the right to contest this action through filing a grievance, if you believe this action violates the Union contract. You may contact your Union advocate or the SEIU 775 office at 1-866-371-3200.”

The lack of the employee's signature on the notice shall not be grounds for nullifying or challenging the notice or any ensuing disciplinary action where reasonable evidence shows that the applicable Employer attempted to inform the employee of the investigation, pending or actual discipline.

SECTION 8.3: SUSPENSION OR DISCHARGE

Within seven (7) calendar days after any suspension or discharge for cause, an Employer shall notify the Union in writing (by fax or email) of the suspension or discharge and the reason for this action and shall attach a copy of the disciplinary notice signed by the employee or provided to the employee. The employer will attempt to assign other work to the employee while it is conducting its investigation as long as the employee is licensed to work. If the employee is exonerated after the employer's investigation and he or she was not offered other work pending the investigation, the employer will reimburse the employee for the time lost. Employees who are suspended may use any accrued, paid leave during their period of suspension. If the employee is not offered other work pending the investigation and chooses to use paid leave during the investigation and is reinstated and exonerated by the employer, any paid leave used by the employee will be placed back into his or her available PTO balance.

SECTION 8.4: INVESTIGATION OF JUST CAUSE BY UNION

An advocate or Union representative shall have the right to interview employees and management personnel and gather information concerning disciplinary matters. Such interviews shall not interfere in any way with an Employer's business activity. Should a client complaint be involved, the applicable Employer will attempt to provide a copy of the clients' written complaint, if any, with all identifiers removed, so long as the removal of identifiers adequately protects the confidentiality rights of the client and the provision of the complaint does not violate federal, state, or local laws or regulations.

SECTION 8.5: EMPLOYER RULES

The Employer may establish reasonable work rules necessary to regulate employees' conduct at work. Work rules shall be reviewed with new employees, conspicuously posted and made available to all employees. The Employer may require new employees to sign a form provided by that Employer to confirm their understanding of the work rules. The Employer will advise the Union of any proposed changes to the work rules thirty (30) days in advance. If the rule is a mandatory subject of bargaining, the Union reserves the right to demand to bargain.

SECTION 8.6: PERSONNEL FILES

Any information about the employee may be included in the personnel file, including without limitation information regarding disciplinary action, such as client complaints, warnings, placements on probation status, and formal evaluation reports prepared by an Employer shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and a copy shall be made available to the employee upon the employee's written request. The Employer shall allow the employee and/or his/her Advocate or representative (if the employee so authorizes in writing or if a Union staff representative is in the process of conducting a grievance on the employee's behalf) to examine the employee's permanent personnel file maintained in an Employer office, at a mutually agreeable time and date; files must be made available within five (5) business days of receipt of a written request. Employees who have a reasonable dispute with information in their personnel file may submit written comments no more than two (2) pages in length, replying to any material in their file, and these comments shall also be maintained in their personnel file. Employees may not submit additional written comments regarding disputes which have been resolved through the grievance process.

Should the employee maintain a good record for one (1) year, all identified negative materials shall be removed from his/her personnel files at the request of the employee, unless otherwise required to be retained by state law or regulation. Files that are not removed after one (1) year shall be considered as if they had been removed so long as the employee has not committed the same offense within the past twelve (12) months.

SECTION 8.7: APS OR REGULATORY INVESTIGATIONS

Should Adult Protective Services or another regulatory agency (such as Children's Administration or the Division of Developmental Disabilities) initiate an investigation of an employee that requires suspension or removal of that employee from any client, but does not require suspension or removal from all home care work, the applicable Employer will attempt to assign the employee other suitable home care work until the investigation is complete if permitted by state law or regulation. If the employer is unable to assign the employee to other suitable home care work, the employee will be advised to apply for unemployment benefits and to have the option to use any accrued and available PTO.

If, following the conclusion of an APS or other regulatory investigation, it is determined by the Employer, or APS or other regulatory agency that the employee is to be disciplined, up to and including termination, the notification provisions of Section 8.2 of this Article will apply.

If the investigation indicates that the disciplinary action is unnecessary, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to reinstate the employee to the same hours/position with the original client. If the client should decline to be served by the employee, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to assign suitable and available client hours, until they are employed at the same number of hours as before the investigation.

ARTICLE 9: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The supervisor's response shall be addressed to both the grievant and the Union. Should the supervisor fail to respond within this time frame, the Union shall have the right to forward the grievance to the next step.

SECTION 9.5: REQUEST FOR ARBITRATION

If no resolution or settlement is reached within (15) fifteen calendar days after the response is received by the Union within the time limits, then the Union shall have the right, to advise the Director or his/her designee that the Union is forwarding the grievance to a neutral arbitrator for final and binding settlement. The time limits for filing for arbitration may be extended by mutual agreement of the official representative of the Parties.

SECTION 9.6: ARBITRATION

The means used to notify employees of available hours may also be referred to the appropriate Labor Management Committee for development following the ratification of this Agreement. The principle of client choice shall be the determinative factor for assignment of worker(s). All other factors and qualifications being equal, the Employer shall offer additional hours first to those workers seeking enough hours to qualify for healthcare coverage and thereafter the Employer shall use seniority as the factor in assigning additional hours, up to a maximum of forty hours per week.

In order to ensure that client hours are assigned on a regular basis by seniority and other factors as called for in this Section, the Employer may temporarily assign any employee for up to seven (7) calendar days to newly available clients while determining which regular employee shall be assigned the newly available hours.

Openings for DHCA positions shall be filled based on the level of demonstrable skills as delineated in the Dispatched Worker Job Description and in compliance with any recognized mentoring program or standard. In filling open DHCA positions among competing qualified candidates, seniority shall apply. A home care worker's ability to perform non-home care aide duties (including, but not limited to, office clerical work) shall not be considered when filling DHCA vacancies.

DHCA positions shall be opened and filled at the discretion of the Employer. The Employer may require DHCAs to wait by the phone at home, or to perform non-home care worker duties in the Employer's office, during hours for which the DHCA is being paid. DHCA s shall make their best effort to perform non-home care aide duties as instructed. Failure to perform non-home care worker duties in a manner satisfactory to the applicable Employer shall not be considered just cause for discipline, except in cases of gross misconduct.

When becoming a DHCA, the employee and their Employer shall meet and develop a list of the employee's skills and abilities. DHCAs assigned shall agree to accept all client assignments offered consistent with the agreed-upon list of their skills and abilities.

DHCAs who decline client assignments that are consistent with their agreed-upon skills and abilities may be subject to reassignment to regular (non-dispatched) home care aide status.

ARTICLE 25: LAYOFF & RECALL

SECTION 25.1: LAYOFF

A layoff is defined as a permanent reduction in the number of employees employed by the Employer. In the event of a need for a reduction in workforce, an Employer will meet with the Union as far in advance as possible to identify the reasons requiring the reduction and the number of employees affected.

If layoffs are required, the least senior employee(s) in a branch office shall be laid off first provided that it does not interfere with client preference and that those employees remaining on the job in that branch office are qualified to perform the work remaining.

An employee subject to layoff or reassignment may decline the new assignment(s) if the employee feels unqualified to provide the care required. The Employer agrees to provide thirty (30) days' notice of layoff to affected employees and to the Union. If there is a reason outside of the Employer's control to lay off an employee without enough time to give them and the Union a thirty (30) day notice, the Employer shall give as much of a notice as possible.

SECTION 25.2: RECALL

Employees shall be recalled in the reverse order of the layoff provided that those recalled are qualified to perform the work assigned. To be eligible for recall, a laid-off employee must keep the Employer informed of his/her current address and phone number. The applicable Employer shall notify laid-off workers of recall by certified letter. When offered re-employment from layoff, the employee must indicate acceptance and availability for work within seven (7) days of receipt of letter unless unusual circumstances prohibit return within that time period.

or funds; set and administer work performance and disciplinary standards, and discharge employees, subject to the conditions as set forth in this Agreement or as required by federal or state regulation. The Employer shall also have the right, in its sole discretion and judgment, to promulgate and enforce safety and health workplace rules. The Employer generally shall notify the union 30 days before a change in policy that is subject to mandatory bargaining. The Union understands the Employer's handbook is subject to state WAC/RCW and state policy change that may necessitate less than a 30-day notice. In cases where the Employer is not provided adequate time by the state or contractor, the Employer shall notify the Union as soon as practical.
