SECTION 12. 2 ACCRUAL

All employment will be of consecutive duration for purposes of accrual of PAID TIME OFF. An employee accrues PAID TIME OFF from the first day of employment, but is not eligible to take accrued PAID TIME OFF until the (90th) calendar day after the commencement of his or her employment. Employees shall be eligible to take Paid Time Off in one-hour increments for whole hours or for consecutive days of vacation. Employees may only carry over up to 40 hours of accrued, unused PAID TIME OFF to the following calendar year.

However, the procedures to use planned vacations and leave of absences vary as leave of absences is considered for emergency situations not covered by the authorized purposes outlined in RCW 49.46.210(1)(b) and 49.46.210(1)(c). Employees are allowed to use planned PAID TIME OFF days provided the employee has the necessary accrued PAID TIME OFF. Absences protected by law (for example, FMLA, paid sick leave for the authorized purposes outlined in RCW 49.46.210(1)(b) and 49.46.210(1)(c), and Washington Family Care Act) will not be considered a PAID TIME OFF occurrence.

The Employer shall provide paid Sick and Safe Leave in compliance with all state and local laws, regulations, and ordinances. Washington State Sick and Safe Leave law will be followed and applied to employees for those eligible absences protected by law. In the event the employee has exhausted their sick leave accrual, PAID TIME OFF can be used with authorization from Chief Operations Officer or Human Resource Manager.

In the event of unexpected Leave of Absence, every employee must call his or her location reporting the need for the absence with as much notice as possible prior to the shift start. The employee will also leave a message on the sick line explaining the absence, prior to the start of the shift.

For the purposes of planned PAID TIME OFF not covered by the authorized purposes outlined in RCW 49.46.210(1)(b) and 49.46.210(1)(c), employees will post for PAID TIME OFF within each team. Each team will keep current PAID TIME OFF calendar to monitor upcoming vacations and available dates for future PAID TIME OFF requests. Approval of said planned PAID TIME OFF will be based on seniority and on a first come first served basis provided enough PAID TIME OFF has accrued. The PAID TIME OFF coverage will first be offered to team members. Leave may only be covered with minimum use of pre-approved overtime. The Team Leader will submit the leave request which will include team coverage to the Human Resources Manager. The Human Resources Manager will be responsible to find coverage for the effected shifts. The Human Resources Manager will send out a broadcast email to all employees to notify them of the available hours.

Requests for PAID TIME OFF of 1-3 days must be submitted two (2) weeks in advance of the desired PAID TIME OFF. Requests for PAID TIME OFF in excess of three (3) days must be submitted three (3) weeks in advance.

The following applies when an employee requires PAID TIME OFF for an authorized purpose under the Domestic Violence Leave Act, chapter 49.76 RCW: When an employee is unable to give advance notice to the Employer because of an emergency or unforeseen circumstances due to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, the employee or his or her designee must give oral or written notice to the Employer no later than the end of the first day that the employee takes such leave.

Employees must have a PTO balance of at least forty (40) hours to participate. Employees must maintain a balance of at least thirty-two (32) hours of PTO. The minimum amount an employee may cash-out is eight (8) hours. Employees may opt to cash out PTO only up to one time annually.

Employees shall retain and accumulate seniority during such leave. However, accrual of seniority shall not exceed ninety (90) days.

Employees on maternity/paternity leave must use accumulated PTO (where eligible) to the extent it has accrued or leave without pay (where the employee has no PTO available).

Employees in an unpaid status may pay the monthly premium for their health insurance in order to remain on the group coverage subject to COBRA regulations.

SECTION 13.2 FAMILY LEAVE

During a twelve-month period, employees will be granted unpaid leave not to exceed twelve (12) weeks to care for a newborn child, adopted child or foster child under the age of six or to care for a child, spouse, or parent who has a serious health condition. A leave will also be granted to an employee who is unable to perform the functions of his/her job due to a serious health condition or as otherwise required by law.

To be eligible for this benefit, an employee must have worked at least 1,250 hours during the twelve-month period preceding the requested leave. In addition, for a foreseeable birth, adoption, or medical treatment for a serious health condition, an employee must give HR reasonable notice (30 days) of his/her request for leave.

The employee shall use accumulated PTO (where eligible) or leave without pay (where the employee has no PTO available) to cover some or all of the family or medical leave.

Employees may elect to reserve up to forty (40) hours (pro-rated for part-time) of PTO.

Requests for leave in excess of twelve (12) weeks will be at the sole prerogative of the Employer.

Leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced work schedule for an employee or qualifying family member if medically necessary.

If the leave does not exceed twelve (12) weeks, the employee shall be entitled to the same or comparable job upon return.

Employees shall retain and accumulate seniority during such leave. However, accrual of seniority shall not exceed ninety (90) days.

SECTION 13.3 JURY DUTY

Employees will be granted civil leave if called to serve on a jury or subpoenaed to testify in court. An employee will be paid the difference between compensation received for jury or courtroom duty and his/her regular base pay for up to ten (10) working days per calendar year. An employee is required to make arrangements with HR in advance of the absence.

Documentation of service must be provided to Employer.

SECTION 13.4 BEREVEMENT LEAVE

In case of death in the immediate family an employee shall be granted a leave of two (2) paid working days. Up to two (2) additional days of pay may be taken from Paid Time Off accrual for this purpose. Bereavement leave of one (1) day may be extended to other than immediate family with the approval of the Executive Director. If an employee needs to travel more than five hundred (500) miles from Bremerton, an additional day of bereavement leave shall be granted.

"Immediate Family" for this Agreement is defined as: spouse, significant other (a person in a committed relationship no less than two (2) years in duration), state registered domestic partner, parent, child, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandparents and grandchildren. (Foster and step shall be considered as immediate.)

Employees who are ordered to or volunteer for military training or active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, the U.S. Coast Guard, the U.S. Public Health Service, or a National Guard component may take a leave of absence for the length of service. Military leaves are without pay and no benefits shall accrue during the period of the leave, except as may be specifically required by applicable federal or state law.

SECTION 13.6 GENERAL LEAVE

Leave of absence may be granted in writing by the Employer, on request of the employee, at the Employer's sole and absolute discretion subject to approval by the Executive Director. Such request must be made to the Employer in writing with a copy to the Union. Leave of absence may be granted for up to one (1) year. Exceptions to the duration of leaves of absence may be made by mutual agreement in writing between the Employer and the Union. During approved leaves of absence without pay, employees may pay their own health insurance premium in order to remain on the group coverage in accordance with COBRA regulations. Employees on leave of absence shall retain but not accumulate seniority. If the leave is less than ninety (90) days, the employee is guaranteed back the same or comparable job in the agency. (A "comparable job" is not necessarily a job in the same location, program or shift.) If the leave exceeds ninety (90) days, the employee shall be offered the first available job for which they qualify.

SECTION 13.7 ALL OTHER LEAVES

All other leaves of absence will be in accordance with applicable federal or state law.

SECTION 14.1 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

If layoffs are required, the following procedures shall be used:

The Employer will identify the job classification, program and/or location in which the layoff needs to occur.

Employees will be laid off in order of the least seniority in the identified job classification, program and/or location where ability, efficiency, reliability, qualifications, competency and compatibility are relatively equal.

Employees who are targeted for layoff shall receive two (2) weeks' notice, or pay in lieu thereof, with reasonable time off for interviews.

If job or shift reassignments need to occur as a result of a layoff, the Employer shall first ask for volunteers within the effected location(s) and/or program(s). If no volunteers are available, assignments will be made in the reverse order of seniority within the effected location(s) and/or program(s), provided employees are qualified to perform the work

SECTION 16.2 PROMOTION

Promotion is hereby defined as a move from a lower salary range to a higher salary range. Transfer is defined as a lateral move within the same salary range. If a transfer or shift change needs to occur as a result of the operational needs of a program, the Employer shall first ask for qualified volunteers. If no qualified volunteers are available, transfers and shift changes will be made in the reverse order of seniority from among qualified employees. It is the intention of the Employer to fill job vacancies from within the organization before hiring new employees, provided employees are available with the necessary qualifications to fill the vacant position.

Minimum Essential Coverage (MEC) Group Health Plan. Eligible employees who elect to purchase coverage for their dependents must authorize the Employer, in a form acceptable to the Employer, to withhold from their paychecks and to remit to the insurance carrier the appropriate monthly premiums due for the dependents coverage elected by the employee. If, for any such period, there are insufficient wages due and payable to the employee to cover the premium to be withheld, the employee must submit directly to the Employer, not later than the 5th of the month, the amount of premium owed by the employee. A “current regular full time employee” for purposes of health insurance coverage only will be defined consistently with regulations defining “full time employee” which are developed under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA). For part time employees moving to full time status, coverage will become effective the first of the month following date of “full time” employment, provided that the employee had been employed at least sixty (60) days upon transferring to full time status. The Summary Plan Description may set forth additional eligibility requirements with respect to specific benefits.

Coverage will terminate in accordance with the rules described in the Summary Plan Description. In addition, the following rules apply. Health insurance coverage shall terminate on the last day of the month immediately following an employee’s date of termination of employment, retirement, death, layoff, and/or the beginning of an approved leave of absence that does not require the Employer to pay an employee’s health insurance premiums while on said leave (for example, the Employer will continue to pay premiums for an employee's health insurance coverage in accordance with legal requirements while he/she is on FMLA, but not for other types of leaves that do not have this legal requirement).

SECTION 18.3 SCOPE OF EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITY

Employer's responsibility under this Article 18 is limited to the payment of necessary premiums to purchase the insurance described in Section 18.1. It has no liability for the failure or refusal of the insurance carrier to honor an employee's claim or to pay benefits and no such action on the part of the insurance carrier shall be attributable to the Employer or constitute a breach of this Agreement by the Employer. Under no circumstances shall the Employer be responsible for paying any benefits under this Article 18. No dispute arising under or relating to this Article 18 shall be subject to the grievance procedures set forth in Article 20 of this Agreement, except an allegation that the Employer has failed to pay the premiums required to purchase the insurance coverage.

SECTION 18.4 CHANGE IN CARRIER

The Employer will have the option during the term of this Agreement to change carriers, or to institute a self-insured program, with the same benefit levels in coverage. This option may be instituted at the sole option of the Employer without further bargaining with the Union. The Employer shall notify the Union of any substantial change in insured benefits with no less than thirty (30) days notice of such intention.

SECTION 18.5 REPEAL OR MODIFICATION OF THE PATIENT PROTECTION AND AFFORDABLE CARE ACT (PPACA)

If the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) is fully repealed and not replaced or if there is no longer a legislative mandate for an employer to provide health insurance coverage to its eligible employees and the Employer intends to cease or make modifications to the insurance coverage referenced in this Article 18.1, the Employer will provide the Union with no less than thirty (30) days notice of such intention.

which is less than sixty (60) days from the date that expenses were incurred.

Employees will not be penalized or payment withheld because of processing delays, so long as the initial reimbursement request was submitted within sixty (60) days from the date expenses were incurred. Paystubs will designate a line item for mileage and expense reimbursements.

ARTICLE 20: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

SECTION 20.1 GRIEVANCE DEFINED

A grievance is defined as an alleged violation of the terms and/or conditions of this Agreement. If any such grievance should arise, it shall be processed by the grievant or Union representative in accordance with the following procedure.

SECTION 20.2 TIME LIMITS

Time limits set forth in the following steps may be extended only by mutual written consent of the parties hereto. If the grievant or Union does not comply with the time limitations, this shall constitute automatic withdrawal of the grievance. If the Employer does not comply with the time limitations, the grievant or Union shall have the right to proceed to the next step of this procedure. Grievances not raised and processed in accordance with the following procedure and time limits will be waived and will not be considered.

SECTION 20.3 PROCEDURE

The Union and Employer agree to make every effort to resolve grievances at the lowest possible level. Employees are encouraged to bring up any concerns with their immediate supervisor prior to filing a formal grievance.

All grievances must be presented in writing at every step. Electronic mail (email) shall be valid notification under this article. Such writing shall specify in detail the acts upon which the grievance is based, and the particular provisions of this Agreement allegedly violated by said acts.

Failure to properly present a grievance in writing at this stage of the grievance procedure shall constitute a waiver of such grievance and bar all further action thereon. Failure on the part of the Employer to answer a grievance at any step shall not be deemed acquiescence thereto and the Union may proceed to the next step.

Except as specifically stated herein, this procedure shall serve as the sole and exclusive mechanism for adjudication of disputes which may arise out of any violation of this Agreement alleged by the Union. At any step of this procedure, the Union representative shall have the right to be present. Grievances involving employee termination will automatically start at Step 2. Union Representative may be present at each step of the grievance.

STEP 1. CASE MANAGER/DIRECTOR OF CASE MANAGEMENT

All complaints and disputes concerning the interpretation and/or application of this Agreement shall be presented in writing by the grievant or Union representative to the grievant's immediate supervisor within fourteen (14) calendar days of the grievant's or Union's knowledge (or when the grievant or Union should have known) that a grievance exists. The written grievance shall specify the provision of this Agreement allegedly violated, the date of such violation, and the remedy sought by the grievant. This step may be waived by mutual written consent of the parties. The immediate supervisor shall be given fourteen (14) calendar days to resolve or respond to the affected employee(s) and the Union representative.

STEP 2. ADMINISTRATION

If the grievance is not resolved in Step 1 above, Union shall present the written grievance to the Administrator or designee within fourteen (14) calendar days from the Step 1 decision or from the time the supervisor should have responded in Step 1. The Administrator or designee shall arrange with a Union representative a mutually agreeable date to meet within ten (10) calendar days from the receipt of such grievance at Step 2 for the purpose of attempting to settle the matter. The Administrator or designee shall submit a written reply to the grievant, with copy to the Union representative, within seven (7) calendar days following such meeting.

STEP 3. MEDIATION

At the conclusion of Step 2, if no solution is reached, the Union shall submit the grievance to a mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). Such reference, if made, must be made within seven (7) calendar days following receipt of the Employer's answer in Step 2. The federal mediator will have 30 calendar days to attempt to mediate a resolution. If neither party takes action within seven (7) calendar days from the end of the 30-calendar day period, the matter will be considered dropped and no further action will be taken by either party regarding this grievance. Should the mediated resolution be unacceptable to the Union, the Union shall reserve the right to proceed to arbitration. The Parties agree that the Mediator's recommended solution or comments and the parties' own proposals, comments and suggestions during mediation may not be referred to or used as evidence in any subsequent Arbitration process.

STEP 4. ARBITRATION

If the grievance is not settled on the basis of the foregoing procedures, the Union may submit the issue to arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days following the completion of the mediation process.

An arbitrator shall be selected by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union. If the Employer and the Union fail to agree on an arbitrator, a list of seven (7) arbitrators shall be requested from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The parties shall thereupon alternate in striking names from panel until one name remains. The party to strike first shall be determined by a coin toss. The person whose name remains shall be the arbitrator. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on all parties. The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, or otherwise change or modify the provisions of this Agreement, but shall be authorized only to interpret existing provisions of this Agreement as they may apply to the specific facts of the issue in dispute.

SECTION 20.4 COSTS

Each party shall bear one-half (½) of the fee for the arbitrator and any other expense jointly incurred incident to the arbitration hearing. All other expense shall be borne by the party incurring them, and neither party shall be responsible for the expense of witnesses called by the other party. Each party is wholly responsible for, and will bear the entire expense of, its own attorney(s), expert witnesses, fact witnesses, and other representatives, regardless of the outcome of the arbitration award or who is determined to be the prevailing party.

SECTION 20.5 MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION LOCATIONS

Mediation conferences and arbitrations shall be held in mutually agreeable locations.

ARTICLE 21: NO STRIKE AND NO LOCKOUT

SECTION 21.1 NO- STRIKE NO-LOCKOUT

It is the intention of the parties to settle disputes by the grievance/arbitration procedure provided herein. Therefore, during the term of this Agreement, the Employer will not lock out its employees, and neither the employees nor their Union's agents or other representatives shall, directly or indirectly, authorize, assist, encourage or participate in any strike, including a sympathy strike, walkout, slowdown or other interference with the operations of the Employer.

SECTION 21.2 SANCTIONS

In the event any unit employee engages in conduct prohibited by Section 21.1, the Union shall notify the employee that such conduct violates this Agreement and subjects them to possible discipline. The Union shall immediately disavow and condemn such activity and take all possible steps to bring such activity to an immediate end and to prevent any reoccurrence of any such activity in violation of this Article. The Union will also, within twenty-four (24) hours of notice of such actions by e-mail, facsimile and/or letter to the Employer, advise that such activity by employees is unauthorized and in violation of the Agreement and set forth all steps taken or to be taken by the Union to end such Agreement violation by the employees involved.

ARTICLE 22: CHANGES IN POLICY AFFECTING BARGAINING UNIT

SECTION 22.1 POLICY MANUAL

The Employer will provide a copy of the current policy manual to each of the households and to the Union office, and a copy will be available at the Employer's main office. The Employer agrees to inform the Union office in writing of any significant changes in policy, procedure or reorganization concerning bargaining unit employees at least fourteen (14) days prior to implementation when practical. The Union will notify the Employer within seven working days if it wishes to negotiate on the matter.

ARTICLE 23: LABOR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

SECTION 23.1 MEETING

A minimum of two management appointees and up to four (4) Union appointees, including one (1) Union representative and up to three (3) employees, will meet as mutually agreed upon but not less frequently than each quarter at the Employer's locale or via video conference. The LMC may discuss the following topics:

- 1) discussion of the administration of the contract
- 2) discussion of problems which may affect bargaining unit members including but not limited to staffing levels, resident care, recruitment, retention, staff recognition, facility policies, and scheduling

- 3) dissemination of items of general interest to the parties
- 4) discussion of training and safety needs for employees.
- 5) act in the capacity of a Benefit Review Team with responsibilities to investigate, review and recommend potential and ongoing Benefit Offerings.

SECTION 23.2 AGENDA

Prior to the meeting a written agenda will be prepared and agreed to by both parties.

Agenda may be supplemented as agreed to by both parties.

SECTION 23.3 MINUTES

Minutes shall be taken by a representative. Topics discussed and disposition of each shall be recorded. Minutes shall be signed by both parties. Copies of minutes will be sent to the Union office and the Executive Director and emailed to the employees within two weeks of the meeting. The LMC will address each recommended agenda item in writing within thirty (30) days to the members of the Committee. Should any item(s) be referred to the Executive Director or to another body, such person(s) shall report decisions or actions to the LMC within thirty (30) days.

SECTION 23.4 NON-BINDING

This Committee shall have no power to bind either party. It is set up for informal discussion only.

SECTION 23.5 PAY

Employee Committee members will be paid their regular rate of pay for up to one (1) hour per meeting for their participation during the LMC.

ARTICLE 24: SEPARABILITY

In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall at any time be declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction or through government regulations or decree, such decision shall not invalidate the entire Agreement, it being the express intentions of the parties hereto that all other provisions not declared invalid shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of such invalidation or injunction, the parties shall promptly meet to negotiate a substitute provision, unless mutually waived by the parties. Any changes or amendments to this Agreement shall be in writing and duly executed by the parties and their representatives.

ARTICLE 25: WAGES

SECTION 25.1 WAGE RATES

The wage rate for each bargaining unit employee shall be as set forth in Appendix A. No employee shall suffer any loss of pay as a result of the implementation of this Collective Bargaining Agreement. Upon expiration of this collective bargaining agreement, the Employer's obligation to provide pay increases shall terminate.

The wage rates listed in this Labor Agreement will be the guaranteed minimum rates of pay for each classification. The Employer may, at its sole and absolute discretion, provide premium pay notwithstanding this Agreement and may revoke said premium pay at its sole and absolute discretion. The premium pay may be to the individual, group or organization-wide. The Employer will maintain the right to advance an employee through the wage scale faster than is required by the collective bargaining agreement, in its sole and absolute discretion.

Upon ratification, current employees will be placed on the wage scale in Appendix A based on their longevity at Communitas.

SECTION 25.2 NEW CLASSIFICATION

Should a new job classification be established by the Employer, the wage rate for such position shall be established by the Employer so that, in the Employer's opinion, it is in fair relationship to other bargaining unit positions at the Employer. The Employer will provide the Union as much advance notice as is practical, but no less than thirty (30) days prior to the planned implementation. If the Union contends that the wage rate for such new position has not been set in fair relationship to other bargaining unit positions, the Union may file a grievance under the terms of the grievance procedure set forth in this Collective Bargaining Agreement.

SECTION 25.3 EXTRA SHIFT BONUS

Employees working a mandatory stay back or any portion thereof in excess of one hour will be paid an additional three dollars ($3.00) per hour, added to the hourly rate, for each such stay back hour actually worked. The Employer will notify the Union in writing of any new or modified incentives for employees to work stay back hours prior to implementation and, upon request, will bargain with the Union to create and/or clarify parameters of new incentive program(s) and/or modifications to incentives.

SECTION 25.4 GROUP HOME DIFFERENTIAL

Any employees working in a Group Home shall earn a differential of one dollar ($1.00) per hour for each hour actually worked in a Group Home, in addition to the employee's regular rate of pay.

SECTION 25.5 STACKING

Employees shall be eligible for all wage differentials provided in this Article for which they qualify, and such differentials shall stack.

SECTION 25.6 HOLIDAY DIFFERENTIAL PAY

A qualified employee shall be paid two times the employee's regular rate of pay for hours actually worked on the following designated holidays: Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Each holiday shall commence at 12:01 A.M. Holidays recognized by this Agreement shall be observed on the day established by Congress for Federal employees, where applicable. An employee may trade Christmas Day for another recognized holiday that is more important to the employee's personal belief system; i.e., Kwanzaa, Yom Kippur, Hanukkah, etc., by giving the Employer two weeks advance notice in writing. Once holiday has been switched, it must remain for Employee's entire term of employment.

SECTION 25.7 ANNIVERSARY INCREASES

Employees shall receive the anniversary increase to the next yearly available step on the wage scale in Appendix A on the first day of the pay period following their anniversary date.

SECTION 25.8 OPEN NEGOTIATIONS FOR CHANGES IN FUNDING

Either party reserves the right to open negotiations on wages/benefits when changes occur in the State reimbursement rate or other factors such as a change in the number of client hours served which significantly impact the Employer's budget. The party desiring to open negotiations must notify the other of its desire to do so in writing. The parties agree to meet and discuss this issue within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of said written notice.

ARTICLE 26: SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICY

The Substance Abuse Policy applicable to bargaining unit employees shall be as set forth in Appendix B.

ARTICLE 27: WARNING AND DISCIPLINARY ACTION

SECTION 27.1 DISCIPLINE OR DISCHARGE FOR JUST CAUSE

No regular employee who has completed six (6) months of active employment shall be disciplined or discharged except for just cause. Upon termination, an employee shall be given a written statement of the cause of discharge within three (3) working days of said request. The Employer agrees to notify the Union Representative of any discharge of a bargaining unit Employee.

SECTION 27.2 PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

- A. The Employer and Union agree that in correcting inappropriate employee conduct the Employer shall employ progressive discipline which may include verbal counseling and warnings, written warnings, probation, suspensions and discharge. The Employer will evaluate the conduct of the employee and the circumstances of the incident to determine what level of discipline is appropriate. The parties recognize that certain conduct is of such a serious nature that resort to a progressive discipline approach is inappropriate. The Employer may, therefore, omit any of the steps and proceed directly to discharge. Conduct falling in this category, depending on its severity, may include, but shall not be limited to failing to maintain client confidentiality; abusing clients; abandonment of position; unauthorized removal of property; intentionally damaging the property of others; fighting; violation of Employer's harassment or discrimination policies; fraud; falsification of documents; insubordination; possession, use or sale of alcohol or illegal drugs while on Employer-related business or property; or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol in said circumstances, The principles of just cause apply to all levels of discipline.
- B. An employee shall be given the opportunity to read, sign and attach a written response to any written warning or disciplinary notice placed in his/her personnel file within seven (7) calendar days of placement in the file. The employee's signature thereon shall not be construed as an admission of guilt or concurrence with the reprimand, but rather shall be requested as an indication that he/she has seen it and comprehends the gravity of the disciplinary action taken. An employee is required to acknowledge by his/her signature receipt of the written warning. Employees shall have the right to review and comment on performance evaluations placed in their personnel files within seven (7) calendar days of placement in the file. Written warnings and performance evaluations placed in his/her personnel file will include the following disclaimer: "Employee's signature confirms only that management has discussed and given a copy of this material to the employee. The employee's signature does not indicate agreement or disagreement with the contents of this material.”

- C. Employees who are terminated shall receive benefit pay out information and exit information in writing at time of termination.
- D. Employees who have a disqualifying background check will automatically be terminated.

SECTION 27.3 RESPECTFUL COMMUNICATION

Communications between supervisors and employees are expected to be respectful, and discipline shall be directed at correcting performance problems. The Employer will not impose discipline in the presence of other employees, residents, or the public common work areas or in the presence of other employees or residents, except in extraordinary situations which pose a serious, immediate threat to the safety, health or well-being of others, provided that corrective actions may be provided in the presence of an administrative, human resources, or supervisory employee who may act as a witness for the Employer. The Employer will impose discipline for minor infractions within ten (10) working days of discovery.

SECTION 27.4 ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE FOR INVESTIGATIONS

An employee may be placed on administrative leave, removed from client services or be reassigned while an investigation is being conducted if the Employer determines the nature of the allegations require the employee to be placed on leave or removed from client services and/or if an outside agency investigation requires that the employee be removed from client services. In cases of alleged client abuse or neglect, the employee may be reassigned only with his/her consent; otherwise, administrative leave will be used. The Employer shall not be required to reassign such employees. In cases where an outside agency is investigating allegations of abuse, neglect or serious employee misconduct, it shall be the responsibility of the employee to inform the Employer when such time as he/she has been made aware by the outside agency that the investigation has been initiated and completed, and the outcome of such investigation. An Employee placed on Administrative Leave, and who is subsequently exonerated and/or reinstated, shall receive up to sixty (60) days of back compensation at his/her regular rate for scheduled work hours lost. Any back compensation received by the employee will be determined based on scheduled hours for the days missed. If it is determined that the employee is to be discharged based on the allegations, the Employer will not be required to pay any back compensation.

SECTION 27.5 REPRESENTATION DURING INVESTIGATORY MEETINGS

The Employer shall inform Employees who are subject to discipline that the employee has the right to request that a union Advocate or representative be present during an investigatory meeting. Such meeting shall be held so as not to interfere with the operation of the Employer and shall involve an available representative if the employee so requests. If a representative is available, the meeting shall not be postponed. The meeting shall not be unduly delayed if no representative is available and, in any event, will occur within two (2) business days from the time the employee requests representation. Representation via telephone shall be facilitated if requested by the Union.

The Employer shall email copies of all corrective actions to the Union's Member Resource Center and designated representative upon request following all disciplinary meetings. Such corrective actions shall be signed by the employee, and shall include the following:

"Your signature on this corrective action indicates only that you have received a copy of the corrective action and does not indicate your agreement or disagreement with the information provided by the Employer. You may have the right to appeal this action through the Grievance Procedure. You may contact SEIU 775 at 1- 866- 371- 3200 for more information."

SECTION 27.6 INVESTIGATION TIMELINE

Discipline will be imposed promptly after discovery of the offense and Employer investigation. Investigations shall be given priority and shall not be delayed except for circumstances beyond the Employer's control (for example, a key witness is on vacation). In the event an investigation is unable to be completed within fourteen (14) calendar days, the Employer shall notify the Union representative (unless declined) and the affected employee concerning the basis for the delay, the efforts the Employer is making to resolve the delay, and an expected time for the resolution of the investigation.

SECTION 27.7 DISCIPLINARY RECORD

Upon the written request of an employee, a record of disciplinary action may be removed from an employee's personnel file twelve (12) months after it was issued, except that if an employee receives a related discipline during the twelve (12) month period, the original discipline will remain in his or her file until twelve (12) months have elapsed during which the employee received no related discipline. Removal of the disciplinary action will be at the discretion of the Executive Director. This provision shall not apply to disciplines issued for resident abuse, resident neglect, sexual or racial or discriminatory harassment, medication errors, or other behavior that violates state or federal law.

ARTICLE 28: SOLE AGREEMENT

SECTION 28.1 AGREEMENT

This written Agreement concludes all collective bargaining between the parties hereto during the term hereof and constitutes the sole, entire and existing Agreement between the parties hereto. This Agreement specifically supersedes all prior commitments or practices between the Employer and the Union or its employees, except insofar as such prior commitments or practices are expressly and specifically adopted in this Agreement and expresses all obligations and restrictions imposed on each of the respective parties during its term.

SECTION 28.2 AMENDMENTS

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and Agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this written Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and Union, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waive the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated, to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subjects or matters may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement. The parties further agree, however, that this Agreement may be amended by the mutual consent of the parties in writing at any time during its term.

ARTICLE 29: TRAINING

SECTION 29.1 TRAINING NEEDS

Training needs will be determined by the Employer and can be a topic for discussion and feedback by the Labor Management Committee.

SECTION 29.2 TRAINING REIMBURSEMENT

Employees will be informed of minimum training requirements and opportunities. Expenses and reimbursement for training and conferences will be administered in accordance with the policy manual. All time spent at mandatory training required exclusively by the employer shall be considered as time worked and paid as such except for training required as a condition of employment for the employee's job, including but not limited to CPR, First-Aid, Food Handlers, TB Test and background check(including fingerprinting).

ARTICLE 30: TERMINATION AND RENEWAL

This Agreement shall become effective as of February 6, 2023 and shall remain in effect through February 5, 2026 and shall thereafter automatically renew itself annually unless either party shall give at least sixty (60) days' written notice prior to the anniversary date of its desire to terminate, modify, or change this Contract. Upon the giving of such notice, the parties shall proceed in negotiations.

APPENDIX B: DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Communitas is committed to providing a safe, healthy, and efficient working environment for all employees. To help achieve this goal, employees are prohibited from:

- possessing, distributing, selling, manufacturing, being under the influence of any illegal drug, or being under the influence of alcohol or marijuana;
- consuming alcoholic beverages while on company premises, in company vehicles, or while on company business or time, or bringing alcohol onto company premises;
- consuming marijuana while on company premises, in company vehicles, or while on company business or time, or bringing marijuana onto company premises; and
- abusing prescription drugs or possessing prescription drugs that have not been prescribed for the employee by a physician.

An employee who violates this policy is subject to disciplinary action up to, and including, termination of employment. Use of some drugs is detectable for several days. Detection of such drugs or the presence of alcohol will be considered being "under the influence." Refusal to submit to a drug and/or alcohol screen is grounds for immediate termination. If an employee is discharged for violation of this policy, he/she is ineligible for rehire for a minimum of one year after such discharge.

Employees using prescription drugs according to a physician's instructions or using over-the-counter drugs for medicinal purposes should, in the event such drugs would impair their physical, mental, emotional, or other faculties, notify The Director of Human Resources.

The organization's substance abuse program includes several components to support its efforts to remain drug-free, including:

- supervisory training;
- employee awareness program;
- drug testing for accidents involving injury and/or property damage;
- drug testing when a supervisor suspects that an employee is "under the influence" during working hours;
- drug testing on a random basis; and
- an Employee Assistance Program (EAP).

All information relating to drug and/or alcohol screens is to be kept strictly confidential. The information will be kept in each employee's medical file, which will be maintained separately from the employee's personnel file. These medical files will be kept locked and secured, and access will be limited to certain individuals in the organization. Under no circumstances should the results of a drug and/or alcohol screen be discussed with individuals that do not have a work-related need to know.

If employees are involved in an accident causing more than $1,000 in damage to property or require medical attention away from the premises, they will be screened to determine whether they test positive for drugs and/or alcohol.

If a team member suspects (by observing any of the symptoms outlined in Appendix C) that an individual is at work and under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs, they should immediately notify the Chief Operations Officer and/or an officer in the organization. The COO or designee will make the determination to test the employee.

The Employer shall initially select reputable facilities for base testing and confirmatory testing at Employer expense. The facility for confirmatory testing must meet all standards set by Federal Health Agencies for laboratory performance and standards of measurement set by the U.S. Department of Transportation. And they must employ certified Medical Technologists and Technicians. The Union will be provided with the testing facilities' names, addresses, and credentials if requested. The employee, at his/her expense, will have the opportunity to have a reputable testing facility, meeting the above criteria, test the same sample submitted to the original test facility.

The employee will notify the Executive Director of this request, in writing, within two business days of the notification of the test results.

If the secondary test confirms the initial positive test result, the employee will be immediately suspended for violation of company policy. The employee must then either sign a "Last Chance Agreement" and comply with the recommendations of the EAP provider, or be terminated.

While the organization does not condone the abuse of alcohol, prescription drugs, and/or use of illegal drugs, Communitas does recognize that addiction to drugs and/or alcohol can be treated. It is the intent of Communitas and the Local Union to correct problems associated with drug and alcohol through the EAP rather than to initially penalize employees based on test results.

Therefore, if an employee recognizes a personal addiction or abuse problem and seeks assistance from management in advance of detection, Communitas will assist the employee in seeking treatment. Moreover, an employee who is a first-time offender of this policy as evidenced by a positive result on a test, will have an opportunity to retain his or her employment by entering into a Last Chance Agreement.

The terms and conditions of each Last Chance Agreement will be put in writing and signed by the employee, the Union and the Company. Each Last Chance Agreement will contain some basic core requirements, but will be designed giving consideration to the individual's circumstances.

All employees required to take a test (except for random testing) will be placed on an unpaid leave of absence pending the receipt of the test results. Employees who test negative will be paid for time lost from work.

The employee who enters a Last Chance Agreement must meet with our Employee Assistance Program and submit to a drug and alcohol test in conjunction with any recommended rehabilitation program. Communitas will provide a medical leave of absence for an employee needing an extended period of time off work as a part of his or her rehabilitation program. Failure to complete the program or to cooperate with the EAP or the treatment provider will be deemed a breach and will result in immediate termination. (A sample Last Chance Agreement is attached as Appendix D.)

Before returning to work, an employee who violated this Drug-Free Workplace Program must submit to follow-up drug and alcohol testing to confirm that the employee is alcohol and drug free.

Note: Employees voluntarily entering the EAP, without a verified positive drug or alcohol test or a violation of any alcohol or drug related rule, do not necessarily have to be subject to follow-up testing.

After returning to work, the employee will be required to submit to unscheduled periodic testing to include a minimum of four tests per year for two years following the employee's return to work.

Refusing to take a test during this period will be considered a breach of the "Last Chance Agreement" and will result in termination.

An employee under a "Last Chance Agreement" who tests positive for alcohol or drug use will be terminated. The employee may also be terminated for any other violation of a "Last Chance Agreement" as determined by the company, the EAP, or the treatment provider, apart from a positive test result. Medical benefits may cover some of the costs of this treatment. Any costs accrued that are not covered by insurance are the sole responsibility of the employee.

Communitas will pay the costs of all drug and alcohol tests it requires of job applicants and employees.

Whether an employee volunteers to participate in the EAP or is required to participate as a condition of continued employment, that employee shall continue to be subject to the same rules, working conditions and disciplinary procedures in effect for other employees, i.e., employees cannot escape discipline for future infractions by being enrolled in the EAP. Employees will not be allowed to elect rehabilitation in lieu of discipline more than one time.

The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is a confidential resource designed to assist employees and their eligible dependents in dealing with challenges and problems, such as substance abuse. Employees and/or eligible dependents can reach an EAP representative by dialing 1.800.523.5668.

UNION LIABILITY

The Employer agrees to hold the Union harmless with respect to reasonable legal expenses incurred by the Union in defending itself in litigation resulting from the Employer's activities in carrying out the drug testing program.

APPENDIX C: REASONABLE SUSPICION BEHAVIOR REPORT FORM

Before sending an employee for a reasonable suspicion drug or alcohol test, the representative must be able to describe the objective signs that caused the representative to suspect the employee has drugs or alcohol in his or her system. Reasonable suspicion that an employee may be impaired can be established by one or a combination of the following indicators:

- Bloodshot eyes or dilated pupils
- Slurred or incoherent speech
- Alcohol on breath or odor of drugs
- Drowsiness
- Poor physical coordination
- An accident or other impaired work performance
- Physical or verbal altercation
- Unusual behavior or response to a situation (e.g., excessive laughter)
- Possession of alcohol or a prohibited substance
- Pinpoint Pupils

The number and degree of reasonable suspicion indicators and the amount of evidence will determine whether there is reasonable suspicion to confront the employee and/or require the employee to submit to a drug or alcohol test. Examine each situation individually and record the observations that raised the suspicion. Please document any appropriate observations in the space provided.

APPENDIX: D: LAST CHANCE AGREEMENT/MEDICAL LEAVE OF ABSENCE CONDITIONS

Sample -- To be tailored to meet the particular circumstances of the facts of the specific case.

Last Chance Agreement/Medical Leave of Absence Conditions

Dear _____,

This letter outlines your employment status with Communitas.

Because of your recent violation of our drug and alcohol policy, Communitas has elected to place you on a medical leave of absence for up to three months effective immediately. The time between the date of your violation of our Drug-Free Workplace Program until now will be deemed a disciplinary suspension without pay.

Specific conditions have been established for the continuation of this leave and your possible return to employment in the future. Your satisfactory performance of these conditions is subject to verification by a substance abuse professional assigned to work with you as well as review and determination by Communitas. Those conditions are:

1. Immediate Treatment and Testing. You must immediately contact our EAP counselor and enter and participate fully in a chemical and/or alcohol dependency treatment program recommended by a certified counselor or Substance Abuse Professional approved by Communitas. You agree to cooperate with all prescribed and recommended testing at the start of this treatment program to determine the scope and extent of your problem.
2. Information Disclosure. You authorize your treatment providers to release directly to Communitas, any reports on the scope and extent of your substance or alcohol problem including, but not limited to, chemical test results, regular progress reports of your condition and treatment, and prognosis for a return to duty. This information is to be sent directly to the Director of Human Resources or the Chief Operations Officer.
3. Condition and Treatment Assessment. When Communitas and you believe you have resolved your situation to the extent that Communitas may consider accepting you back for duty, you authorize your treatment providers to fully disclose your condition and treatment to the Director of Human Resources or the Chief Operations Officer.

4. Return to Work. Upon successful completion of the prescribed rehabilitation program, you will be required to submit to a return to duty drug and alcohol test that confirms that you are drug and alcohol free.
5. Post-Return to Duty Random Drug Testing. As a further condition of your medical leave and possible return to duties, you agree to authorize Communitas to require you to participate in drug and alcohol testing for a minimum of four times per year for two years following your return to duty. Any positive result on a drug and alcohol test during this period will result in your immediate termination. Following your return to work, your performance must meet the standards applicable to all of your co-workers.

Communitas is concerned with your personal health and well-being. However, your violation of our Drug-Free Workplace Program presents a serious problem. We are encouraged by your agreement to participate in treatment and wish you a successful recovery.

If you agree with the terms of this letter, please sign below and return it to me. Should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Communitas

In exchange for the mutual undertakings between Communitas and me, I voluntarily agree to the terms and conditions in this letter.

APPENDIX F: Anti-Harassment

The Employer will not tolerate harassment or similar conduct in any form, even if it falls short of illegal conduct.

The Employer's policy applies to conduct by any party against any other party, including by or against employees, coworkers, contractors, administrators, residents, vendors, visitors to the workplace, volunteers and other third parties. The policy applies to all work-related settings and activities, whether inside or outside the workplace, including business trips and business-related social events.

If the Employer becomes aware of harassment, the Company will act promptly to ensure the conduct is stopped and not repeated. The Employer expects managers and supervisors to proactively protect employees and residents from harassment. This includes demonstrating and communicating appropriate standards of workplace conduct, monitoring employee and third-party conduct and promptly reporting any alleged incidents or concerns.

The following are examples of prohibited conduct:

- Epithets, slurs, negative stereotyping, or threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts that relate to any legally protected characteristic or activity;
- Written or graphic material displayed or circulated in the workplace that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group because of any legally protected characteristic or activity;
- Intimidating, hostile, derogatory, disrespectful, or otherwise offensive conduct or remarks that are directed at a person or group because of any legally protected characteristic or activity;
- Knowingly and recklessly making a false complaint of harassment or discrimination, or providing knowingly false information regarding a complaint; and
- Retaliation against an employee for filing a good faith complaint, opposing harassment or discrimination, or cooperating in the investigation of a complaint.

Sexual harassment includes a broad spectrum of conduct. By way of illustration only, and not limitation, some examples of unacceptable behavior include:

- Unwanted sexual advances
- Offering an employment benefit (such as a raise, promotion or career advancement) in exchange for sexual favors, or threatening an employment detriment (such as termination or demotion) for an employee's failure to engage in sexual activity.
- Visual conduct, such as leering, making sexual gestures, and displaying or posting sexually suggestive objects or pictures, cartoons or posters.
- Verbal sexual advances, propositions, requests, or comments.
- Sending or posting sexually-related messages, videos or messages via text, instant messaging, or social media.

- Verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal comments about an individual's body, sexually degrading words used to describe an individual, and suggestive or obscene letters, notes, or invitations.
- Physical conduct, such as touching, groping, assault, or blocking movement.

Reporting and Non-Retaliation

An employee is encouraged to discuss a workplace concern, including incidences of harassment, abuse, discrimination or unsafe conditions, with management. Each member of management is responsible for creating an atmosphere free of discrimination and harassment, sexual or otherwise. Further, employees are responsible for respecting the rights of their coworkers. If you experience any harassment by fellow employees, supervisors, vendors, clients or others, or believe that you have been treated in an unlawful, discriminatory manner, promptly report the incident to your supervisor, department head, or the Executive Director. This applies to all incidents of alleged harassment, including those which occur off premises, or off hours, where the alleged offender is a supervisor, coworker, or any other person connected with Communitas. There is no need to follow any formal chain of command when filing a complaint, or discussing or expressing any issue or concern regarding alleged discrimination or harassment. The employee may bypass anyone in their direct chain of command and file the complaint or discuss or express any issue of concern with the Executive Director at any time. The Employer welcomes such discussions because it allows the Employer to maintain a productive and harmonious atmosphere. Employees will not be subject to any adverse employment actions for raising good-faith concerns.

The Employer takes all complaints of harassment, abuse, discrimination, or unsafe conditions seriously and will not retaliate against an employee in any way for reporting such a problem in good faith. The Employer is committed to prohibiting retaliation against those who report or participate in an investigation of alleged wrongdoing in the workplace.

Reassignment

Employees have a right to a workplace free of harassment, abuse, discrimination and unsafe conditions. If an employee in good faith reports an incident involving unsafe conditions in the care of a particular resident and requests reassignment, the employee should be reassigned to the best of the Employer's ability, including considerations for whether other employees may be safer.

If the employee has reasonable cause to believe they are unsafe, or facing physical, verbal or sexual harassment, they will keep a safe distance from the resident and call 911 and report the concern to a manager or Employer representative immediately.

Paid Training

The Employer will pay for all training and/or certification fees required by the Employer or regulatory agencies to maintain safety standards subsequent to the date of an employee's hire (i.e., health tests, inoculations, CPR, food handler's card, etc.). New employees are expected to have all mandatory training and/or certifications as a prerequisite of hire.
