- There is evidence of misconduct, performance concerns or failure to meet standards
- Fair application of rules/policies
- The degree of discipline is related to the seriousness of the offence

The purpose of progressive discipline is to correct an employee's behavior and is not intended to be punitive in nature. Prior to issuing a disciplinary reprimand, the employer shall attempt to gather facts surrounding the incident; and shall conduct a proper investigation prior to issuing a disciplinary reprimand. All discipline may be appealed under the Grievance Procedure in Article 8.

Caregivers will be subject to a progressive discipline system for violating the Caregiver Handbook and policies and procedures.

An advocate or Union representative shall have the right to request information related to the disciplinary matters. ARTICLE 8: GRIEVANCE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

SECTION 8.1 DISPUTE RESOLUTION PHILOSOPHY

The Employer and the Union commit to address and resolve issues in a fair and responsible manner at the lowest possible level, and to use mediation and conflict resolution techniques when possible. Our relationship depends on mutual respect and trust based on our ability to recognize and resolve disagreements rather than avoiding them.

Prior to filing a grievance, the Union and the Employer will attempt wherever possible to resolve problems informally and not to resort to the formal grievance procedure.

SECTION 8.2 GRIEVANCE DEFINITION

A grievance is defined as a contention of a misapplication or violation concerning the application or interpretation of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.3 GRIEVANCE/DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

Step 1. Informal Resolution

The caregiver and/or a Union representative may confer with the Employer's designated representative and attempt to resolve the issue informally. Cases submitted for potential resolution as a part of the informal process will not be assumed to be covered under a formal written grievance unless specifically stated in the written grievance.

The Union shall have up to forty-five (45) calendar days from the alleged violation, or up to forty-five (45) calendar days from when the caregiver or the Union could reasonably have been aware of the incident or occurrence, giving rise to the grievance, to engage in the informal process, if it so chooses. If the issue is not resolved informally, and/or remedies are not granted, the Union shall have forty-five (45) additional calendar days to submit a written grievance, in accordance with Step 2 of Article 7.3.

Step 2. Written Grievance

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the caregiver and/or Union representative shall set forth the grievance in writing including the identity of any affected grievant(s) if known by the Union, a statement of the pertinent facts surrounding the grievance, the date on which the incident occurred, the alleged violations of the Agreement, and the specific remedy requested. The provision of identities of affected individuals in the grievance is without prejudice to which caregivers are ultimately covered by the grievance.

The written grievance shall be submitted to the Employer within forty-five (45) calendar days of the occurrence of the alleged violation or within forty-five (45) calendar days of when the caregiver or the Union could reasonably have been aware of the incident or occurrence giving rise to the grievance. Caregiver grievances shall be submitted by email to LaborCDAK@consumerdirectcare.com.

The Employer or the Employer's designee shall meet with the grievant and their Union representative within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance, in order to discuss and resolve the grievance. Subsequent to this meeting, if the grievance remains unresolved, the Employer will provide a written response to the grievance by email within twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date the parties met to discuss the grievance. If the response does not resolve the grievance, the Union may, within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the response, proceed to Step 4, Arbitration.

Step 3. (Optional) Mediation

As an alternative prior to final and binding arbitration in Step 4, if the matter is not resolved in Step 2 the parties may choose by mutual agreement to submit the matter to mediation in order to resolve the issue. The party requesting mediation of the dispute must notify the other party by email no later than fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt by the Union of the emailed response from the Employer in Step 2. The party receiving the request for mediation must notify the other party by email within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the request whether or not it agrees to mediate the dispute.

If the party receiving the request does not agree to mediate the dispute, the Union may, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the email notification of the decision not to mediate, proceed to Step 4, Arbitration.

If the parties agree to mediation, they shall select a neutral mediator. Both parties shall submit a statement of their position on the issue. The mediator may also bring the parties together in person to attempt to resolve the issue.

The parties shall each pay one-half (1/2) the costs or fees, if any, of the neutral mediator. Each party shall be responsible for its own costs, including the costs of representation, advocacy and the costs of that party's appointed representatives.

If the issue is successfully resolved by mediation, the decision shall be binding on all parties, and shall, unless specifically agreed otherwise, form a precedent for similar issues. If the issue is not successfully resolved through mediation, the Union may, within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of a written declaration of impasse or rejection of a settlement offer from either party, proceed to Step 4, Arbitration.

Step 4. Arbitration

If the grievance is not settled at Step 2 or 3, it may, within the time frames noted above, be referred by the Union to final and binding arbitration. The arbitrator shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties, within thirty (30) calendar days of the request for arbitration, or, upon failure to agree upon an arbitrator, the Union shall, within forty-five (45) calendar days of the original request for arbitration, request a list of seven (7) arbitrators from the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). The parties shall select an arbitrator within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the list by alternately striking names from the list of seven (7) arbitrators. A coin toss shall determine which party shall first strike.

The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties. The parties shall each pay one-half (1/2) the costs of the arbitration, including the fees of the arbitrator and the proceeding itself, but not including the costs of representation, advocacy, or witnesses for either party. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or change any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.4 TIME LIMITATIONS

The parties agree that the time limitations provided in this Article are essential to the prompt and orderly resolution of any grievance, and that each will abide by the time limitations. To this end, grievances must be processed within the periods of time specified above. Days are calendar days and will be counted by excluding the first day and including the last day of timelines. When the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the last day will be the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or holiday. Any grievance not properly presented in writing and within the time limits specified, or any grievance not moved to the next step within the specified time limits shall be considered to have been withdrawn. If the Employer fails to meet the time limitations specified, the Union may move the grievance to the next step. Time limitations may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

SECTION 11.3 THIRD-PARTY ADMINISTRATOR

The Employer will notify a caregiver, via the contact information provided, within forty-eight (48) hours of processing a timesheet if there is a problem with how the caregiver is reporting their hours. If the caregiver corrects the error prior to the payroll cutoff date for the pay period, they will be paid within that pay period. Caregiver-initiated changes made to a timesheet after the published cutoff and changes to caregiver or client eligibility that impact payment are not subject to these timelines.

SECTION 13.2 TIMELY AND ACCURATE PAYMENT

Caregivers shall be entitled to receive timely and accurate payment for services authorized and rendered. To promote a timely and accurate payroll system, the Employer and the Union shall work together to identify causes and solutions to problems resulting in late, lost or inaccurate paychecks and similar issues. The parties acknowledge the time necessary to correct errors in payments depends on the underlying nature of the error. The Employer shall identify causes and solutions to problems within a reasonable period of time but in no event more than five (5) business days from when the problem was reported.

Once the cause of the error has been identified, payment will be made as soon as possible but no later than in ten (10) business days. Debit cards will be requested to be sent to the caregivers within four (4) business days and will be capable of being activated upon receipt. If a direct deposit does not successfully process payment to the caregiver, the Employer shall contact the caregiver to update their direct deposit.

SECTION 13.5 TAX WITHHOLDING

The Employer, at its expense, shall withhold from each caregiver's paycheck the appropriate amount of Federal Income Tax, Social Security, Federal and State Unemployment Insurance, Medicare contributions, and any other taxes or public insurance fees required to be deducted by federal or state law. The Employer is responsible for submitting the required contributions to the appropriate State and Federal agencies.

SECTION 13.6 CHANGES TO PAYROLL AND PAYMENT SYSTEMS

The Employer shall inform the Union and the Employees of any substantive changes made to payroll. The Employer shall determine the costs associated to implement the provisions of this agreement. The Employer shall bear the costs for any changes to payroll or payment systems and these costs shall be included in the cost of the overall Agreement. If the Union requests programming changes not otherwise covered or required by this Agreement, the parties will meet to discuss prioritization, capacity and funding.

The above enumerations of clients' rights are not inclusive and do not exclude other rights not specified, including those rights and authority provided under the law. The exercise or non-exercise of rights retained by the client shall not be construed to mean that any right of the client is waived; including, but not limited to the statutory right of clients and prospective clients to select, hire, supervise the work of, and terminate any caregivers.

Caregivers serving as representatives of the Union as described above shall be paid their highest wage, including mileage driven to the meeting, by the Employer for their time spent in LMC meetings. The parties will be solely responsible for determining dispensations, if any, of other expenses of their respective representatives and/or resource persons as attendees.

The employee should contact the Employer as soon as possible but no later than the next business day to explain the situation. The Caregiver will be paid for all hours worked and paid overtime if their hours exceed 40 hours in the week or 8 hours in the day.

Except for emergent situations as described above, caregivers must request approval from the Employer in advance to work overtime. The Employer will approve overtime pursuant to state regulations and on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration the needs of the client.
