ARTICLE 1: STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

SEIU 775 (“the Union”) and Addus Healthcare (“the Employer”) agree that working together to maximize public reimbursement and identifying training and skill development opportunities are objectives for the union and the company. This collaborative approach will enhance the quality and consistency of the services provided to consumers and will improve working conditions for people who provide personal care services.

ARTICLE 2: RECOGNITION

Addus Healthcare, (“Employer”) and its successors and assigns, hereby recognizes and acknowledges that SEIU Local 775 (“Union”) affiliated with the Service Employees International Union is the exclusive collective bargaining agent for all its direct service employees in the historical bargaining unit in which SEIU was chosen to represent Addus direct care employees in the employer branches in the State of Washington including Walla Walla, Vancouver, Longview, Yakima, Kennewick, Spokane, and Colville, herein referred to as “employees,” excepting all guards as defined in Section 9(b)(3) and supervisors, coordinators, clericals, managers, professionals, and executives as defined under the National Labor Relations Act.

The classification of employees to which the agreement is directed includes employees providing direct care services including personal care and other activities of daily living support to individuals enrolled and authorized for care under any publicly funded program. Publicly funded programs include services funded through Medicaid, Medicaid Managed Care, State, County or Municipal Funds, federal funding such as the Veteran’s Administration or the Older Americans Act. In circumstances where direct care employees who are current members of the bargaining unit are currently providing or are requested to provide care to a consumer whose care is not financed through any of the publicly funded programs described above, the terms of this agreement shall apply to such work. Locations providing exclusively non-publicly funded services are not included in the bargaining unit. Direct care employees are further defined as individuals who are employees of the company and do not include individuals providing personal care and other activities of daily living services under a fiscal intermediary or fiscal employer agent contract maintained by the company whereby the company has no control over terms and conditions of employment including selection, hiring, and firing of direct care employee, regardless of funding source.

SECTION 4.4 DUES/COPE/VOLUNTARY DEDUCTIONS

The Employer agrees to deduct from each employee's pay all authorized fees, dues, assessments, COPE contributions, and other deductions (up to four (4) total), upon receipt of a lawfully executed voluntary authorization by each employee directing the Employer to make such deductions. The Employer shall make such deductions from the employee's paycheck following receipt of such authorization, and periodically thereafter as specified on the authorization, so long as such authorization is in effect, and shall remit same to the Union. The Union will furnish all the forms necessary to be used for this authorization.

Deductions will begin by the start of the next payroll cycle following the receipt of the employee authorization at the employer's corporate office or following receipt of employee deduction authorization updates from the Union. Upon request, the Union will furnish the original dues authorization to the Employer.

Employees may express such authorizations by submitting to the Union a written membership application, through electronically recorded phone calls, by submitting to the union an online deduction authorization, or by any other means of indicating agreement so long as the Union can establish that such method is verifiable and allowable under state and federal law to the Employer's satisfaction. An authorization shall be considered verifiable where the Union provides documentation that an employee authorized the specific terms of the payroll deduction either on paper through a written signature, via electronic signature on an on-line or other electronic form that includes the specific terms of the deduction or via an electronically recorded phone call in which the employee authorized such deductions after being informed of the specific terms.

Authorized deductions for Union dues or an amount equal to Union dues shall be revocable, regardless of the employee's membership status, in accordance with the terms under which an employee voluntarily authorized said deductions.

Under no circumstances shall the period of irrevocability for any employee be more than one year or beyond the termination date of the applicable collective bargaining agreement, whichever occurs first.

The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders, or judgments brought or issued against the Employer as a result of any action taken by the Employer pursuant to any communication from the Union under the provisions of this article. The Union shall be responsible for defending any such action and paying all attorneys' fees and costs incurred in defending against such actions.

SECTION 4.5 DATA SECURITY

The Employer agrees that the following information is confidential, and shall not be released by the Employer or its agents to any third party, including any contractor or vendor, except as necessary to comply with the provisions of this agreement, for the provision of other employment benefits, or by a regulatory agency or court of competent jurisdiction as required by law: the names, addresses, telephone numbers, wireless telephone numbers, electronic mail addresses, social security numbers, and dates of birth of all employees covered by this agreement.

ARTICLE 5: VACANCIES

When a bargaining unit position opening occurs within the Employer, each employee will have the ability to review any open position at any time by accessing the Employer's internal or external career websites.

ARTICLE 6: ORIENTATIONS

SECTION 6.1 IN-SERVICE TRAININGS

The Employer agrees that a period of time will be made available before or after each in-service training meeting, or before or after any scheduled break during the training, but not beyond normal office working hours, for Union Advocates and/or Union representatives to address members of the bargaining unit. Management or supervisory personnel may not be present unless mutually agreed to by the Union and the Employer. Such meetings shall not disrupt the in-service schedule, have a maximum duration of thirty (30) minutes, and shall be conducted in accordance with Article 20: Dignity and Respect.

For Union meetings held under this section, the Employer agrees to inform the Union of regular in-service training dates, times and locations one month (30 days) in advance and other in-service training dates, times and locations as far in advance as practicable. The Union must inform the branch manager of its desire to address the bargaining unit members at a scheduled in-service training two (2) days in advance. The Employer shall provide the Union with an electronic list of expected participants at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting.

SECTION 6.2 NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION

6.2.1 MEMBERSHIP CARD

The Employer shall include a Union membership card in each employee's employment paperwork. The card will be reserved for the Union Representative/Advocate, as available, to review the membership card with new employees during their orientation. After collecting said card from the new employee, the Employer shall retain a copy for itself and send a complete digital copy of the original to the Union within five (5) business days via a common electronic method agreed upon by the Employer and the Union. Cards collected by a Union Advocate will be shared with the Employer so the Employer can make a copy for their files.

The Employer will make digital copies of membership cards on file available to the Union upon request through the data maintenance process outlined in Section 4.3.

6.2.2 UNION PRESENTATION

Reasonable time, but not longer than twenty (20) minutes, shall be granted for a representative of the Union to make a presentation at the orientation of new employees on behalf of the Union for the purpose of identifying the organization's representation status, organizational benefits, facilities, related information, and distributing and collecting membership applications. The Employer shall give the Union ten days' notice of any such orientation and shall provide the Union with an electronic list of expected participants at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the orientation.

If the Union representative is an employee of Addus, the employee shall be given time off with pay for the time required to make the presentation. The Employer will provide the Union reasonable notice of the place and time of meetings for the orientation of new employees.

Upon hiring any new bargaining unit employee, the Employer shall provide the employee with a Union new hire packet provided by the union.

ARTICLE 7: EQUAL OPPORTUNITY & NON-DISCRIMINATION

SECTION 7.1 EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination with respect to employment or conditions of employment on the basis of race, ethnicity, language, citizenship, immigration status, color, physical and/or mental disability, marital status, national or tribal origin, ancestry, genetic information, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, marital or family status, pregnancy status, age, religion, creed, veterans status, political beliefs, actions and affiliations, socio-economic status, union membership and activities, or other consideration made unlawful by federal, state, or local law. The Employer further agrees that it shall not discriminate in terms or conditions of employment on the basis of the aforementioned characteristics (except for bona fide occupational qualifications or client preference).

SECTION 7.2 ANTI-HARRASSMENT AND ANTI-DISCRIMINATION POLICIES

The Employer has established anti-harassment and anti-discrimination policies that are compliant with state and federal law. The establishment of these policies will be in conjunction with the Harassment Abuse and Discrimination (HAD) Workplace Safety Committee (Article 15 of the Agreement). These policies shall include a complaint procedure, including non-retaliation and confidentiality policies. Such policies shall be made readily available to employees in the employee handbook and shall be updated as needed or as required by law.

It is the responsibility of the Employer to ensure that all employees are aware of the Employer's anti-harassment and anti-discrimination policies and properly trained on the content of such policies.

SECTION 7.3 PRIVACY RIGHTS

The Employer shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local regulations with respect to the privacy rights of its employees.

ARTICLE 8: UNION RIGHTS

SECTION 8.1 UNION ADVOCATES

For purposes of representation and mutual administration of the contract, the Union will designate Advocates from among its members employed by the Employer. The Union will notify the Employer within fourteen (14) calendar days when an Advocate has been designated.

SECTION 8.2 BULLETIN BOARD

The Employer will provide a bulletin board, in an area easily accessible to employees in each branch office, for Union postings. The Union agrees to apply reasonable standards of good taste when posting Union notices.

During the life of this agreement, should the Union develop a “virtual bulletin board” the Employer shall display a link provided by the Union. The parties shall meet to determine the appropriate place on the Employer’s website to display the link and/or agree to include it in the NEO packet.

SECTION 8.3 UNION LEAVE

Any employee elected or appointed to an office or position in the Union shall be granted a leave of absence for a period of continuous service with the Union not to exceed two (2) years. The leave may exceed two (2) years in cases where the term of office exceeds this period. Thirty (30) calendar days’ written notice must be given to the Employer before the employee takes leave to accept such office or position, or before such an employee returns to work. Such leave of absence shall be without pay or benefits.

A leave of absence without pay shall also be granted for no more than ninety (90) days to conduct Union business provided fifteen (15) calendar days written notice is given. Such leave of absence shall be without pay or benefits. The Employer and the Union shall cooperate in the scheduling of substitutes, so that employees on leave can return to their job positions upon ending their leave. If this leave lasts more than five (5) calendar days, the Employer will not be able to guarantee the employee their same clients or same hours. If the Employer determines it will harm client services, the Employer can deny a leave request to the employee serving the affected client, until the Employer can find a substitute. If more than one leave of this kind is taken per year by the same employee, the second or additional leave request shall be at the sole discretion of the Employer.

SECTION 8.3.1 LOBBY DAY:

The Employer agrees to grant up to fifteen percent (15%) of bargaining unit employees in each state, based on a first-come, first-served basis, specific paid leave days, up to two days per person per calendar year, as designated by the Union to participate in lobby days. Requests for additional days may be granted on a branch-by-branch basis, and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.

lobby says are for the general purpose of public action and advocacy to any state or federal government, legislature or congress on issues related to home care or home health services and other mutually beneficial legislation.

Bargaining unit employees shall inform the Employer of their intent to attend a lobby day, by following the Employers policy on requesting leave. Leave requests shall take client needs into consideration but shall not be unreasonably denied by the Employer. The Employer shall communicate promptly with the Union concerning any difficulties in granting leave requests. The Employer shall provide written notification to the employee, within a maximum of seven (7) business days from the employee's request for leave, indicating whether approval for Lobby Day has been granted or denied.

Employees on paid leave for lobby day shall receive their regular rate of pay for their scheduled hours on that day. Such time shall not be counted for the purpose of overtime or paid time off computation.

The Union shall submit a list of those employees who attended the designated lobby days, to verify attendance for the Employer's purpose of paying leave. In addition, employees are required to submit a timesheet to the Employer in order to be paid for lobby days. Employees who requested leave, but whose attendance is not verified by the records provided to the Employer and who did not report to work shall be denied leave.

ARTICLE 9: PROBATIONARY PERIOD

The probationary period for new employees shall consist of ninety (90) calendar days from the date of hire. Upon successful completion of the probation period, the employee shall be entitled to be added to the seniority list. The Employer may discharge a probationary employee with or without cause or advance notice.

ARTICLE 10: MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

It is mutually agreed that it is the duty and the right of the Employer to manage the facility and direct the workforce. This includes, but is not limited to, the right to hire, transfer, promote, reclassify, layoff, reduce hours, set and administer work performance and disciplinary standards, and discharge employees for just cause subject to the conditions as set forth in this agreement.

The foregoing statements of rights of management and of the Employer functions are all-inclusive and shall not be construed in any way to exclude other functions not specifically enumerated, except when such rights are specifically abridged or modified by this agreement.

ARTICLE 11: NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUT

There shall be no strike, slowdown, or other stoppage of work by employees represented by the Union and no lockout by the Employer the life of this agreement.

ARTICLE 12: DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

SECTION 12.1 JUST CAUSE AND DISCIPLINE

The Employer shall not have the right to discipline or discharge employees except for just cause. Discipline shall be, in general, directed at correcting performance problems, except in situations when the nature of the offense is cause for immediate discharge, such as serious misconduct, as defined by the Employer's policies. Discipline may include oral reprimands, written reprimands, suspension, and discharge. The Employer may skip steps in the discipline process based upon the seriousness of the offense in accordance with the provisions of just cause. At every step of the disciplinary process, the Employer shall provide an explanation for each action taken.

The Employer's current practice is that after twelve (12) consecutive months without any serious misconduct or disciplinary actions shall result in all previous discipline being removed from consideration in progressive discipline.

If the Employer disciplines an employee, the Employer will make commercially reasonable efforts to discipline the employee in private and in a manner that is not intended to embarrass the employee before other employees, clients, or the public.

When employees are issued disciplinary actions, the discipline will include a description of the conduct that is the basis for the discipline. The Employer will strive to identify specific corrective action(s) the employee must take to improve their performance.

Employees who are discharged for cause will be sent their final paycheck fourteen (14) days after the date of termination of their employment. This final paycheck will include payment for all hours worked and not paid, as well as payment for any unused accrued paid time off, as outlined in Section 33.3.

SECTION 12.2 WRITTEN WARNING/SUSPENSION

In any case where an employee is the subject of a written formal warning or suspension, the Employer will notify the employee of the employees' option to be presented with the warning in a face to face meeting, video call or conference call, and to have a Union representative present at the meeting or participate in the conference/video call when it is scheduled. If a Union representative is desired, it is the responsibility of the employee to notify the Union and arrange representation. Prior to commencing delivery of the written formal warning or suspension at the scheduled meeting, the employee will be given a form to confirm that the employee has been offered the option to have a union representative present. The confirmation will be attached to the written formal warning or suspension as part of the permanent record of the meeting. In cases where a suspension results in termination for just cause, back pay for the suspension period will not be offered.

If an employee speaks a language other than English, they may request interpretation from the SEIU Member Resource Center (MRC) at any point before or during the investigatory or disciplinary meeting. If interpretation is unavailable at the time of the request, the meeting will be rescheduled until the parties can schedule interpretation.

The Employer, employee, and Union representative will make every effort to conduct this meeting within seven (7) calendar days. The planned meeting date, time, and location will be communicated with the Union, and will then proceed as planned.

SECTION 12.3 UNION NOTIFICATION

Within forty-eight (48) hours after any suspension or discharge, the Employer will notify the Union in writing of the discharge/suspension and the reason for this action. Failure to do so will not affect the termination or its validity in any way.

SECTION 12.4 INTERVIEW BY UNION

A Union representative shall have the right to interview employees and branch management concerning discharge and discipline matters. Employer personnel shall have the right to have another Employer representative present in such interviews. Such interviews shall not interfere in any way with the Employer's business activity. Such interview is to be for informational purposes. The Employer will have the same right to interview any bargaining unit employee, provided the employee is permitted to have a union representative at the interview.

SECTION 12.5 EMPLOYER RULES

The Employer may establish reasonable work rules necessary to regulate employees' conduct at work. Work rules shall be made available to all employees through employee handbooks and postings on our company website. The Employer will advise the Union of any proposed changes to the work rules thirty (30) calendar days in advance.

SECTION 12.6 EMPLOYEE CONFERENCES

Employees shall be notified by the Employer of their right to request Union representation at the beginning of any disciplinary meeting or disciplinary investigation, either in person or by phone. When the Employer requests a written statement as part of a disciplinary investigation in lieu of a meeting, the Employer shall notify the employee of their right to consult their Union representative prior to submission of the statement. If the employee declines the assistance of a Union representative, the employee shall decline by signing a waiver form.

If an employee makes such a request, the Employer agrees to make time available when the participating Union advocate and employee are not assigned to work. The Employer agrees to compensate the employee and the advocate for time involved in disciplinary/investigatory meetings. After four reasonable and documented attempts to set up a meeting time with the participating steward, the meeting will proceed on the date proposed in the fourth attempt regardless of the availability of the advocate.

SECTION 12.7 PERSONNEL FILES

Any information regarding disciplinary action, e.g., warnings, placements on probation status, or formal evaluation reports prepared by the Employer shall be placed in the employee's personnel file, and a copy shall be made available to the employee. The employee shall be offered the opportunity to sign the document, indicating that they have seen it and shall have the right to add a written reply to it. The Employer shall allow employees access to their personnel file at reasonable times. Employees shall have the right to submit written comments up to twice the length of the item being replied to or two (2) pages, whichever is longer, and reply to any material in their file. These comments shall also be maintained in the personnel file.

SECTION 12.8 APS INVESTIGATIONS/SUSPENSIONS

In the event Adult Protective Services (APS) initiates an investigation, to the extent permissible by law and depending on the nature of the investigation or surrounding circumstances, the Employer may at its sole discretion keep the employee actively working with other clients that are not part of the investigation; where an employee only has the one client involved in the investigation, the Employer may at its sole discretion assign another client to the employee. Upon completion of the APS investigation, if it is determined that no further action is required by the Employer regarding the affected employee, the Employer shall make a reasonable attempt to bring the employee back to his/her workload prior to the investigation.

If the employee is unable to be reassigned, the employee may use accrued, earned leave as a substitute for leave without pay.

ARTICLE 13: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

SECTION 13.1 DEFINITION

A grievance is hereby defined as a claim against, or dispute with, the Employer by an employee or the Union involving an alleged violation by the Employer of the terms of this agreement and/or the employee handbook or past practices and policies of the Employer. The Union and the Employer are mutually committed to resolving disputes at the lowest level possible and in an expedient manner.

An individual employee or group of employees shall have the right to present grievances and to have such grievances adjusted without the involvement of the Union, as long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this agreement and/or the employee handbook and the appropriate Union representative has been given the opportunity to be present at such adjustment.

SECTION 13.4.3 ARBITRATION DECISIONS AND COSTS

The arbitrator will render a decision within thirty (30) calendar days after the hearing.
