The Employer will endeavor to use this form of discipline to correct the behavior rather than to punish the employee. Communications between supervisors and employees about disciplinary matters shall be respectful and discipline shall be, in general, directed at correcting performance problems.

Employees who are discharged will be issued a final paycheck by direct deposit or mail within five (5) days of the date of the termination of their employment. This final paycheck will include payment for all hours worked and not paid, as well as payment for any accrued personal leave.

Serious Misconduct:

In the case of serious misconduct, the Employer may in its sole discretion, and for reasonable cause, bypass any one or all of the steps of progressive discipline. Examples of serious misconduct include, but are not limited to, misrepresentation on employment applications, misrepresenting time and tasks, client abuse, violence, theft, and "no call, and no show."

In the case of any form of discipline less than termination, the employee's disciplinary action shall include a description of the conduct that is the basis for the disciplinary action(s). The Employer will strive to identify specific corrective action(s) that the employee is expected to take to improve their performance.

Fact-finding:

Prior to issuing any form of disciplinary action to an employee, the Employer shall attempt to meet with the employee to investigate and gather facts. The Employer shall advise the employee of the purpose of the investigatory meeting and that the meeting could lead to disciplinary action and shall advise the employee of their right to request the presence of an advocate or Union representative in the meeting. If an employee requests the presence of an advocate or Union representative, the Employer will make a reasonable attempt to schedule a meeting when the participating advocate or Union representative and employee are available to meet.

The unavailability of an advocate or Union representative for a meeting date shall not unreasonably delay or impede the Employer's investigation or decision to take disciplinary action.

SECTION 8.2: NOTIFICATION OF FORMAL DISCIPLINARY ACTION

In the case of any written reprimand, the Employer shall give a copy of the disciplinary action to the employee, stating the reasons for the discipline in no longer than fourteen (14) calendar days from the day of the infraction or from the date the Employer became aware of the infraction, but as soon as possible. The document shall include a line for the signature of the employee and the immediate supervisor or manager responsible for the decision to issue discipline, including the following notice: "Signing this document indicates that you have received a copy of the document but does not indicate that you agree or disagree with its contents. You may have the right to contest this action through filing a grievance, if you believe this action violates the Union contract. You may contact your advocate, worker representative or the SEIU 775 office at 1-866-371-3200."

The lack of the employee's signature on the notice shall not be grounds for nullifying or challenging the notice or any ensuing disciplinary action where reasonable evidence shows that the Employer attempted to inform the employee of the investigation, pending or actual discipline.

SECTION 8.3: SUSPENSION OR DISCHARGE

Within seven (7) calendar days after any suspension or discharge for cause, the Employer shall notify the Union in writing (by fax or email) of the infraction and the reason for this action and shall attach a copy of the disciplinary notice signed by the employee or provided to the employee.

Employees who are suspended may use any accrued, paid leave during their period of suspension. If, upon the conclusion of an investigation during an unpaid suspension, the employee is exonerated, the Employer will pay the lost time due to the suspension within the following two payroll days from the date of reinstatement. If the employee uses accrued PTO, fully or partially, to be paid during an unpaid suspension and is exonerated, the Employer shall restore the PTO used (for the lost time) into the employee's PTO bank.

SECTION 8.4: INVESTIGATION OF JUST CAUSE BY UNION

An advocate or Union representative shall have the right to interview employees and management personnel and gather information concerning specific and identifiable disciplinary matters. Such interviews shall not interfere in any way with the Employer's business activity. Should a client complaint be involved, the Employer will attempt to provide a copy of the clients' written complaint, if any, with all identifiers removed, so long as the removal of identifiers adequately protects the confidentiality rights of the client and the provision of the complaint does not violate federal, state, local laws or regulations.

SECTION 8.5: EMPLOYER RULES

The Employer may establish work rules necessary to regulate employees' conduct at work. Work rules shall be reviewed with new employees who will sign a form provided by the Employer to confirm their understanding of the Employer's rules and made available to all employees and the Union. The Employer will advise the Union of any proposed changes to the work rules thirty (30) days in advance.

SECTION 8.6: PERSONNEL FILES

Any information about the employee may be included in the personnel file, including without limitation information regarding disciplinary action, such as client complaints, warnings, placements on probation status, and formal evaluation reports prepared by the Employer. This employee personnel file, or a copy of the same, shall be made available to the employee upon the employee's written request. The Employer shall allow an employee to examine their personnel file maintained in an office of the Employer, upon the employee's request. Employees who have a reasonable dispute with information in their personnel file may submit written comments, replying to any material in their file, which comments shall also be maintained in their personnel file. Employees may not submit additional written comments regarding disputes which have been resolved through the grievance process. Issued discipline shall not be used for progressive discipline if it has been in the employee's file for longer than a year or if the next infraction is different in nature, however, the Employer may be required to retain all disciplines in the employee's file by state law or regulation.

SECTION 8.7: REGULATORY INVESTIGATIONS

Should a regulatory agency initiate an investigation of a home care worker that requires suspension or removal of that home care worker from any client but does not require suspension or removal from all home care work, the Employer will attempt to assign the employee other suitable home care work until the investigation is complete if permitted by state law or regulation.

If, following the conclusion of a regulatory investigation, it is determined by the Employer, or the regulatory agency that the employee is to be disciplined, up to and including termination, the notification provisions of section 8.2 will apply.

If the investigation indicates that disciplinary action is unnecessary, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to reinstate the employee to the same hours/position with the original client. If the client should decline to be served by the employee, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to assign suitable and available client hours to the employee until employed at the same number of hours as before the investigation.

ARTICLE 9: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

SECTION 9.1: DEFINITION OF A GRIEVANCE

A grievance shall be defined as an alleged violation of the provisions of this Agreement or specific past practices applicable to members of the bargaining unit, as specifically contained in the Employer's written policies and procedures or in the Employer's handbook which are or is in effect upon the date of ratification of this Agreement, and which have not been altered or amended by this Agreement or the Employer. The Union and the Employer are mutually committed to resolving disputes at the lowest level possible, where practicable, and in an expedient manner.

SECTION 9.2: TIME LIMITS

The Employer and the Union agree that wherever possible, issues should be resolved informally and/or at the earliest possible step. The purpose of time limits within the Grievance Procedure is to encourage the swift resolution of disputes. Time limits may be extended or waived at any step in the grievance procedure by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union. The Union may withdraw a grievance at any step in the grievance process. The Parties agree the grievance may be resolved at any stage of the grievance process provided that all appeals are timely.

SECTION 9.3: GRIEVANCE STEPS

Grievances shall be handled in the following manner:

Step One: The grievant and/or advocate or Union staff representative shall present a grievance in writing to the Employer's representative within fourteen (14) calendar days after the employee Union advocate or representative should have reasonably learned of the event giving rise to the grievance or within fourteen (14) calendar days from the event giving rise to the grievance, whichever is later.

The written grievance must contain the following information:

- a. The exact nature of the grievance;
- b. The act or acts alleged to be violations of the Agreement, an Employer policy or the Employer's past practice that is not specifically addressed in this Agreement;
- c. When the alleged act(s) occurred;
- d. The identity of the grievant or grievants;
- e. The specific article or provision of this Agreement or the past practice applicable to members of the bargaining unit, as specifically contained in the Employer's written policies and procedures that are in effect upon the date of ratification of this Agreement, and which have not been altered or amended by this Agreement alleged to have been violated;
- f. The remedy proposed to attempt to resolve the grievance.

The written grievance need not be on the Union's grievance form, as long as it contains the information above. The written grievance must be signed by the grievant or the authorized Union representative.

The supervisor shall respond in writing to the grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days of the presentation to agree to solve the grievance with the remedy specified by the Union or an alternative remedy or to deny the grievance. The supervisor's response shall be addressed to both the grievant and the Union. Should the supervisor fail to respond within this timeframe, the Union shall have the right to forward the grievance to the next step.

Step Two: If no resolution or settlement is reached between the grievant and the supervisor, the grievant or the Union may file a written appeal of the supervisor's decision rendered in Step One to the Personnel Officer or their designated representative. The Union staff representative shall file this written grievance within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the supervisor's decision from Step One. A meeting, in person, via phone call, or videoconference with the Personnel Officer or their representative, the grievant, and the Union representative shall be held no later than fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the written appeal. The Personnel Officer's response shall be addressed to the grievant and the Union and shall be copied to the Chief Executive Officer. If a Step 2 response does not solve the grievance satisfactorily for the grieving party, it may be advanced to the next step in the process.

Grievances initiating at Step Two:

Grievances concerning discharge or discrimination shall be filed initially at Step Two (2). Group grievances claiming the same alleged violations involving employees who work under more than one supervisor may be filed initially at Step Two, also known as a Class Action.

Mediation (optional):

Should the parties fail to resolve the Grievance at the Step 2 meeting, either party may request that the Grievance(s) be submitted to mediation no later than fourteen (14) days following the date on which the Employer submits its written Step 2 Grievance Response to the Union. Upon a timely request, both Parties shall enter into good faith mediation including using the services of Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services ("FMCS") or another mutually agreed upon Mediation Service offered locally. Each party shall bear their own costs associated with preparing for the mediation. The mediation costs, if any, shall be split equally between the parties. The mediation shall be conducted within thirty (30) days unless the parties are unable for good reason to schedule the mediation in that time-period. In no event shall a mediation be conducted later than sixty (60) days after a timely request for mediation unless the parties agree in writing.

SECTION 9.4: REQUEST FOR ARBITRATION

Prior to invoking Arbitration, the party seeking Arbitration must have participated in mediation in good faith unless both parties agree in writing to skip mediation and proceed directly to Arbitration. If the Grievance is not resolved in mediation, or the parties have mutually agreed in writing to forgo mediation, a Party may submit a written demand for Arbitration no later than 14 days following the conclusion of the unsuccessful mediation or written agreement to forgo mediation.

In the event that a grievance proceeds to arbitration, the Parties shall make a good faith effort to agree on an arbitrator. In the event the Parties are unable to agree, and not later than five (5) days from receipt of the request by the Union for arbitration, the Parties shall select an arbitrator as follows:

- a. The Montana Department of Labor and Industries (MDLI) shall provide a list of five (5) arbitrators to the Union and to the Employer.

The jurisdiction of the impartial arbitrator is limited to:

- a. Adjudication of the grievance setting forth the issue or issues to be arbitrated;
- b. Interpretation of the specific terms of this Agreement or past practices applicable to members of the bargaining unit, as specifically contained in the Employer's written policies and procedures that are in effect upon the date of the ratification of this Agreement, and which have not been altered or amended by this Agreement of the Employer which are applicable to the particular issue presented to the arbitrator;

The principle of client choice shall be the determinative factor for assignment of worker(s). All other factors and qualifications being equal, the Employer shall offer additional hours first to those workers seeking enough hours to qualify for health care coverage and thereafter the Employer shall use seniority from the sign-up sheet for available hours as the factor in assigning additional hours, up to a maximum of forty (40) hours per week.

As the policy holder, and fiduciary agent, the Trust shall indemnify and hold harmless from liability the Employer from any claims by beneficiaries, health care providers, vendors, insurance carriers, or employees covered under this Agreement to the extent such liability is related to the Trust's performance (or lack of performance) of its responsibilities hereunder and under applicable law, provided that the Trust will not indemnify and hold harmless the Employer to the extent the liability results from the Employer's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

It is recognized that the Employer's role in regards to the Trust are limited to those established by this Agreement and the proper payment of Employer contributions, the collection of employee contributions and the reporting of eligibility and other information as required by the Trust and applicable law. The Employer and the Union have established a mutually agreeable process for the distribution of funds specifically appropriated by the State of Montana for Direct Care Worker wages and bonuses. These funds are referred to as the Direct Care Wage Initiative (DCWI).

The process for distribution of these funds which are received by the Employer in lump sum payments shall be as follows:

The Employer, upon receipt of DCWI lump sum funding, and with approval of the Union, will establish a per hour wage amount to be paid equally to all employees covered by this Agreement.

The DCWI hourly wage will be paid in addition to the regular wages referenced in Article 23: Wages & Premiums, Section 23.2 Starting wages.

The DCWI hourly wage will be disbursed through a specific payroll item (wage rate) called the DCWI Wage Differential. This DCWI Wage Differential amount will appear on all employee paychecks.

Any DCWI funds remaining at the end of each State Fiscal Year (SFY), June 30, will be disbursed in the form of an employee bonus based on the number of hours worked in a previous six (6) month period, and be based on the employee's seniority.

The Employer will provide the Union with notice of their distribution of the bonuses at the time the notices are sent to PCAs. The notice will include the total bonus amount distributed.

SECTION 23.4: DIRECT CARE WORKER BONUS PAYMENTS

Current and active employees at the time of the DCWI bonus disbursement shall be entitled to receive this bonus.

Hours Worked During Eligibility Period.

The Employer may determine the exact six-month time period to be utilized but will endeavor to use as recent a time period as possible.

The amount of bonus paid to each employee shall be determined using the following criteria:

- The number of hours worked in the six-month eligibility period prior to the distribution of DCWI bonus payments.

- Seniority

Date of Hire Bonus Formula

Prior to 12/31/2012: $0.52 X total hours worked in 6-month eligibility period.

1/1/2013 through 12/31/2017: $0.45 X total hours worked in 6-month eligibility period.

1/1/2018 through 12/31/2022: $0.38 X total hours worked in 6-month eligibility period.

1/1/2023 to current eligibility period: $0.31 X total hours worked in 6-month eligibility period.

In the event that that these calculations produce a total bonus amount that is higher than available DCWI funding, the Employer shall reduce individual bonuses by an even amount for each worker to match available funding. The Employer shall attempt to ensure to keep any reduction separated by seven cents ($0.07) between each of the seniority dates listed above. In the event that the seven cents ($0.07) separation results in an over or under amount of available funding, the change to the separation cents will be kept as small as possible. The Employer will notify the Union of any adjustments made to the disbursement process as far in advance as possible. The Employer and the Union may also agree to establish a minimum amount to bonus for each employee.

ARTICLE 24: NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUT

There shall be no strike by the Union and no lock-out by the Employer over the issues covered in this Agreement during the term of the Agreement. Should the Employer reasonably believe that the Union and/or its member employees are in violation of this Article, the Employer shall contact the President or Secretary/Treasurer of SEIU 775 or appropriate designee(s) to advise them of the situation. The officer shall advise employees and/or the Union representatives engaged in the objectionable activity immediately that the activity is unsanctioned. Subject to the other provisions of the Agreement, all conditions relating to wages, hours of work, and other terms, conditions and benefits of employment shall be maintained as in effect at the signing of this Agreement. For the purposes of this Agreement, past practice will be considered those past practices applicable to members of the bargaining unit, as specifically contained in the Employer's written policies and procedures that are in effect upon the date of ratification of this Agreement, and which have not been altered or amended by this Agreement.

The Parties agree that all negotiable items have been discussed during the negotiations leading to this Agreement, and, therefore, agree that negotiations will not be reopened on any items. However, by mutual agreement of the parties, negotiations of this collective bargaining agreement may be re-opened as a result of new regulatory, legislative, or funding issues.

ARTICLE 26: SEVERABILITY

This Agreement shall be subject to all present and future applicable federal, state, and local laws and rules and regulations of governmental authority. Should any provision of this Agreement, or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance, be invalidated, rules contrary to law, or enjoined by a Federal or State court, or duly authorized agency, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. One of these days will be reserved for use as decided by the policy agenda created by Home Care Services, LLC. The other paid day will be designated by the Union. Employees participating in either day will access the use of Paid Bank Time referenced in Article 11.3. The Union shall designate in writing to the Employer the employees who are requesting such leave at least fourteen (14) calendar days in advance. Leave requests shall take client needs into consideration but shall not be unreasonably denied by the Employer. The Employer shall communicate promptly with the Union concerning any difficulties in granting leave requests. Employees on paid leave for advocacy activities shall receive their regular rate of pay for the number of scheduled hours normally worked on that day. Such paid leave time shall not be counted for the purpose of overtime computation.

The Union shall submit a list of those employees who attend the designated advocacy days, to verify attendance for the Employer's purpose of paying leave. This policy prohibits managers, supervisors, and employees from harassing coworkers, clients, residents, vendors, suppliers, independent contractors and others doing business with the company. Such actions include but are not limited to: verbal or physical harassment or abuse, attempts at intimidation, sabotage, destruction of property, menacing gestures, possession of weapons, stalking, coercion, pushing or shoving, horseplay, or other hostile, aggressive, harmful and destructive actions.

Human Resource and Security personnel work with at-risk employees and their supervisors to develop safety plans that address the specific risks the employee faces while at work.

Victims of violent incidents in the workplace might have to contend with a variety of medical, psychological, and legal consequences. The Employer shall work with victims of workplace violence by:

Employees and applicants shall not be subject to harassment, threats, coercion or discrimination because they filed a complaint, participated in an investigation, or exercised any other right protected by federal, state, or local law.

Confidentiality

All complaints of harassment or discrimination reported to management or Human Resources will be treated as confidentially as possible, except as needed to conduct a fair investigation. The investigation will include a private interview with the person filing the complaint and with witnesses, to the extent deemed necessary.

The Employer and the Union will work through the Labor Management Committee on the further development and implementation of this article.
